ELLA GOLDSTEIN

Ella Goldstein, the celebrated pianist, celebrates her eighteenth birthday on Monday, and to commemorate the occasion a special Orchestral Concert has been arranged to take place at the Colosseum Theatre on Monday evening. The event will be an outstanding one as two great piano concertos will be presented by Miss Goldstein and the Cape Town Municipal Orchestra to be conducted by Professor Uriel Goldstein. The concertos will be the Beethoven "Emperor" and the Saint-Seans No. 2 in G Minor." On Wednesday night Ella Goldstein will appear at the Empire Theatre, Muizenberg, with the Cape Town Municipal Orchestra conducted by Professor Uriel Goldstein.

PLAZA.

"Waterloo Bridge," with Vivien Leigh at the head of a particularly good cast, continues to attract crowded houses at the Plaza. This is definitely one of those rare pictures that can be enjoyed a second, and even a third time. The next Plaza feature is "Dr. Gillespie's Criminal Case," an apt title for there seems little doubt that this production is a tip-top thriller.

ROYAL.

"Two Girls and a Sailor," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's tuneful, zestful new musical comedy hit comes to the Royal Theatre on Thursday. Featured are three of the most popular youngsters on the screen to-day—Van Johnson, June Allyson and Gloria de Haven—all of whom seem headed straight for stardom. Comedy is provided by Jimmy Durante and Grace Allen; songs by Lena Horne and Virginia O'Brien, and music by Harry James and his Music Makers and Xavier Cugat and his Orchestra.

ALHAMBRA.

Some really picturesque and colourful scenes are incorporated in this year's pantomime production, "Cinderella," and it promises to be one of the loveliest stage spectacles ever presented at the Alhambra Theatre. Produced by Philip D.

Levard, the pantomime opens an eight-day season on Friday next. The merry gags and exquisite dances and the simple story of "Cinders"—a story that will never grow old—will be enjoyed by both old and young. An excellent cast headed by Ivy Tresmand, Ruby Morriss and Neil McKay, has been selected to take part and an enormous chorus of adults and children support the leads.

"Limelight Parade" at Muizenberg.

The musical comedy revue "Limelight Parade" will be presented at the Muizenberg Pavilion Hall next Monday, 5th February, in aid of the funds of the Cape Jewish Aged Home.

This revue had a successful run last year at the Odeon Theatre, Sea Point, as well as at the Liberty Cavalcade Theatre. This time there is an entirely new cast of 38 including Archie Foster, Gracie Klugman, Annie Berndt, Chris King, Tony Russel, Delicia Jacobs, Lilian Graham, Mary Harriet and John Swart. The original dialogue is by Pte. Len van de Kar (up North).

The London Studio of Stage Dancing, as well as the individual members of the Ballet Club, provide the dances, whilst the music is provided by Sybil Newman, Derrick Bernfield, Dennis Hammond and Louis le Roux. Mr. Harry Fabian who has recently started his own theatrical venture known as the Cape Theatrical and Musical Enterprises, has devised the show and is responsible for the production.

Stellenbosch Cultural Group.

At a gathering of the Stellenbosch Jewish Youth which was held at the newly established Reading Room, it was unanimously decided to form a Cultural Group which will meet at regular intervals to pursue a study of: (a) Hebrew language; (b) Jewish history; (c) Bible; (d) Religion.

The following were elected as the Executive: Chairman and Convenor, Rev. I. Pakter; Joint Hon. Secretaries, D. Silberstein and H. Werb.
