the services of Vera Poppe, the international cellist, and Simone Saless, the well-known Continental violinist. The other artists will be Hedy Haas, the brilliant Continental character artist and impersonator; Harry Rabinowitz, the well-known radio stage baritone, who needs no introduction to the Cape Town public.

COLOSSEUM.

"Address Unknown," now showing at the Colosseum Theatre, is one of the most unusual subjects ever produced. It deals with the triumph of Jews over anti-Semitism and is a film that should not be missed. Based on the story by Mrs. Frances Taylor, and read by millions when it appeared in "The Readers' Digest," this emotional tale of love and revenge is a memorable ex-

ELLA GOLDSTEIN

Ella Goldstein gives her farewell concert in Cape Town at the Colosseum on Monday evening in conjunction with the Cape Town Municipal Orchestra to be conducted by Dr. Wm. J. Pickerill. Miss Goldstein has specially chosen the Brahms Concerto No. 1 in D Minor for the occasion, and will also play as a solo item Liszt's "Fantasia Quasi-Sonata "Dante." The Orchestra will play Schubert's "Unfinished Symphony." Miss Goldstein departs for Johannesburg next week.

PLAZA.

"Dr. Gillespie's Criminal Case" at the Plaza differs from its predecessors and is hailed as a classic thriller. The cast is certainly notable, with Lionel Barrymore, Margaret O'Brien, Donna Reed, Marilyn Maxwell, Keye Luke, Van Johnson, Frances Rafferty and the "Crime Does Not Pay" players

An important film event is the "Kismet" premiere next Friday. Said to be the most costly of screen undertakings, it presents Ronald Colman as rascal, prince and vagabond lover. Marlene Dietrich, Edward Arnold, James Craig and a host of screen talent are in this technicolour masterpiece.

Zurich.

Dr. Gabor Langyl, President of the Hungarian Zionist Organisation, addressing the Provisional Assembly in Debreen, disclosed that 100,000 Jews survive in the liberated sections of Hungary; 180,000 remain in the occupied parts.
