Evening of Russian Music and Ballet.

A programme of all Russian and Soviet and Ballet, organised by the S.A. Friends of the Union, will be presented at the City Theatre, Saturday, 18th August, at 8.15 p.m.
The programme will be in conjunction with the Town Municipal Orchestra, who will play the movement of Shostakovitch's Leningrad Symphony. Of special interest to music lovers will be the performance of the Tschaikowsky Piano Concerto, and a selection of songs of the Soviet Union, sung by the Camps Bay and District Musical Society, conducted by Joseph Manca. These songs include the new National Anthem and Shostakovitch's "Salute to Life"—sung for the first time in Cape Town by a trained mixed choir. The concert will be followed by the performance of the ballet "Prince Igor", by Borodin, will also be presented by the Cape Town Ballet Club.
The evening promises to be very entertaining.
Tickets at Darters.

Eileen Ralf.

Eileen Ralf, pianist, who has come to South Africa from Australia, where she had a highly successful tour, will open her Cape Town season with an all-Beethoven recital on Wednesday, 5th August.
Eileen Ralf was born in Perth, West Australia, and came to London as a young girl where she was acclaimed by the leading critics for her mature interpretations of the great works, and her name was coupled with great artists by the famous music critic, Neville Cardus. She is the wife of Thomas Matthews, the brilliant violinist who has entertained Cape Town audiences with his recitals for many months ago.
The programme for Eileen Ralf's concert opens at 8.15 on Wednesday 23rd August.
