You can't buy bread that isn't!

It can come to that—soon—if you don't start saving NOW. Even all South Africa's gold can't get wheat that doesn't exist—and there is a world shortage. Stop waste by following these simple rules:—

1. Buy only as much bread as you need.
 2. Remember that it is wrong—and unfair to yourself—to sift meal.
 3. Don't cut off crusts.
 4. Don't feed bread to animals.
 5. Don't slice bread up before a meal. Cut each slice from the loaf as it is needed.
 6. Cut thinner slices.
 7. Keep bread fresh, so that each loaf lasts as long as possible.
 8. Don't use fresh bread for making puddings or other dishes.
- A slice of bread per head per day saved, is equivalent to nine shiploads of wheat a year.

DON'T WASTE BREAD!

Triumph for Sigi Weissenberg.

Sigi Weissenberg, the 16-year-old pianist, scored a great triumph when he gave his first recital in Cape Town on Tuesday night at the City Hall, which was filled to capacity.

The programme opened with Bach's Italian Concerto, in which Weissenberg immediately revealed himself as a mature artist of high rank. In his interpretation of this unique work he displayed outstanding technical qualities and sound musicianship. Liszt's Sonata in B Minor followed and he gave a magnificent performance, leaving a profound impression.

After the interval Weissenberg played Claire de Lune by Debussy, Nocturno (for the left hand only) by Scriabine, the Flight of the Bumble Bee by Rimski-Korsakov and Triana by Albeniz. Each of these items, so different in subject and style, was exquisitely played and left little to be desired.

Weissenberg received a tremendous ovation and played several encores, including the charming little Liadov "Musical Box."

The second and final concert by Sigi Weissenberg will be given in the City Hall on Tuesday next, for which he has chosen a variety of different works, chief among them being Chopin's "Sonata in B Minor, Op. 3." Another item of special interest is "Humoresque" by Wladigeroff, his old teacher in Bulgaria before the war.

In addition the programme includes "Sonata in E Flat Major (Haydn), Prelude Fuge and Variation (Cesar Franck), two Studies by Scriabine, the first in D Flat Major and the second in D Sharp Minor, and finally Prokofieff's "Suggestion Diabolique," Opus No. 4.

PLAZA.

The booking for "The Green Years" is said to be phenomenal. Saturday night was sold out for days in advance. We are told that this Cronin novel is particularly fine as a film. The next picture is "Florian." It takes you to Vienna in its glamorous days. Among the spectacular scenes are Franz Josef's Imperial Ball, the review of the magnificent Lippiman horses, the gaiety of a happy land. Then revolution and chaos. Amidst this spectacle and turmoil is the forbidden romance of a stable lad and a duchess. Baronova, principal dancer of the Ballet Russe, is featured. Charles Coburn, Robert Young and Lee Bowman are in a big cast.

COLOSSEUM.

"No time for Love," co-starring Claudette Colbert and Fred MacMurray, will be the Colosseum's new attraction from to-morrow. The story concerns the romantic involvement of a highbrow woman photographer with a tunnel digger. According to all the rules they shouldn't have a thing in common—but they have, and the conflict between these two people is said to make this film one of the funniest seen for a long time. Others in the cast are Ilka Chase, Richard Hadyn, Paul McGrath and June Havoc.
