Zionist Socialist Party. PAARL BRANCH.

A drawing-room meeting was held on Monday evening, 2nd December, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Gordon, to give party members the opportunity of welcoming Mr. L. Rabinowitz on his return from America.

Mr. Rabinowitz had spent six months in the U.S.A. and he gave a very interesting, informal talk on his experiences and impressions. He had travelled by rail across the American continent and had met all types of people and all shades of opinion. He was able to attend a session of the U.N.O. and to hear the debate on the veto. Mr. Rabinowitz had visited the Zionist Socialist offices in New York and had met the business manager and secretary of the "Jewish Frontier." Generally the average Jew was somewhat apathetic towards the Zionist cause, he said. What impressed Mr. Rabinowitz particularly was the way in which all sections exercised their democratic right of free speech.

Lt. Col. J. Nadich.

Lt.-Col. Judah Nadich arrived in Cape Town from Johannesburg on Tuesday and expects to sail early next week on his return to America.

At a Garden Party held at the home of Mr. Leo Feit in Johannesburg members of the J.W.A. and workers gathered to bid farewell to Col. Nadich.

Mr. Feit paid warm tribute to the great work done by Lt.-Col. Nadich in the J.W.A. Campaign. Adv. S. M. Kuper spoke on behalf of the Board of Deputies and Zionist Federation, Mr. Leon Segal on behalf of Cape Jewry and Mr. C. I. Jacobs on behalf of the Jews of S. Rhodesia.

As a token of appreciation of the work of Lt.-Col. Nadich, the J.W.A. presented him with a beautiful kist. The workers of the J.W.A. presented him with a silver cigarette case.

Lt.-Col. Nadich, replying, said that it was a great privilege for him to have been able to come to South Africa to help in the Campaign. He would forever treasure the memory of his visit to South Africa, and he hoped at some future date to be able to revisit the country so as to resume the fine friendships which he had made during his stay here.

He felt he would also like to pay tribute to the South African community. Despite the criticisms levelled by others who had visited this country, it was his firm conviction that South African Jewry had excellent material from which to build a great community. He felt that the South African and American communities could play a very great part in restoring the vitality and fortunes of the hard-pressed Jewish people.

Rabbi I. Kossowsky wished Lt.-Col. Nadich a pleasant voyage and a happy future.
