Chavurah Afikim Organises a Machaneh.

The sun was already high in the heavens when 25 chaverim arrived at "Gustrouw" Farm, near The Strand, with the prospect of a week-end's Machaneh before them. One of the highlights of the camp was to be the interesting work on the lands such as grafting vines or transplanting saplings from the nursery. It was very disappointing to realise that no work was to be carried out that week-end. However, after much good-natured pestering, the farm foreman, fearing for his home and family, in desperation consented to allow the chaverim to clear away some thorns and dry wood. Friday night was taken up with the traditional night walk, and the next day being Saturday, lighter subjects were indulged in such as learning new songs and dances, talks and discussions on Simchat Bet Hashoevah, etc. At night the campfire was held. The chaverim strolled down to the beach quite often during their stay, to bathe and play on the sand. Greatly disappointed, they left on Sunday afternoon. The chaverim are very thankful to the owners of the farm, Messrs. Klein and Sher, for allowing them the use of the spot and assisting them to make the camp the success it was.

Novel Indoor Campfire Concert, Hora and Folk Dancing will be held in the Talmud Torah Hall, Maitland, on Saturday, 18th October, at 8.15 p.m. Organised by Pelugah Ir-Dan.

Hat Parade.

Glamour was the order of the afternoon when three hundred of Cape Town's fashion fans attended a Hat Parade in the Bohemian Club last Friday. The function was yet another of the enterprising ventures of the Cape Town branch of the Union of Jewish Women.

The clever atmosphere of half light and the intriguing commentary of Mrs. Marcia Liesching served as a complement to the lovely heads which displayed the hats. During the interval a hat was auctioned after the American style, and there was some delightful singing by Mr. Eddy Gaye. The whole afternoon's proceedings were accompanied by the soft lilting of the Bohemian Club's Band.

Laurels for faultless organising go to Mrs. H. Newman and Mrs. D. Harris, and the energetic branches who sold the tickets.
