SUCCESSFUL MUSICAL SOCIETY CONCERT

THE performance of Nella Wissema and Crystal Blomkamp at the Musical Society concert in the Selborne Hall on Tuesday night, deserved a far larger audience. The programme was interesting and varied, ranging from Bach and Beethoven to Debusay and some vivid impressionistic sketches.

Crystal Blomkamp's admirable rendering of Beethoven's Sonata in E Flat, showed sensitivity and restraint. She has a light touch, and her performance of Debussy's L'Isle Joyeuse" and Dohnanyi's "Rhapsody" was charming.

Nella Wissema opened the programme with Bach's Violin Sonata, She is a fine player, with artistic individuality and excellent technique, John Ireland's Sonata for Violin and Piano gave her full scope to express her musical personality. She concluded with Bloch's haunting Hebrew melody, "Nigun."

STAGE AND CINEMA

Sonja Henie and John Payne are the stars of "Marriage on Ice," showing at the 20th Century. The film introduces five new song hits, and has some of the finest skating scenes ever shown on the screen. Jack Oakie and Sammy Kaye and his orchestra are an added attraction.

A first-rate comedy is "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," the film at the Colosseum. The exploits of Mrs. Wiggs and her offspring will, evoke laughter and tears—but mainly laughter. Don't miss it!

"Young Ideas" at the Metro, a laugh riot from beginning to end, should appeal to all tastes. Apart from an excellent cast which includes Susan Peters (of "Random Harvest" fame). Herbert Marshall and Mary Astor, this film promises some valuable advice to all men about to be married.

"Dick Whittington," now entering its fit week at the Empire, ensures three hours real good entertainment, Colour effects a lavish scenery all go to give this pan mime its perfection.

Excellent comedy, lovely music and some fine acting are offered you in "Moonlight in Havana," another gay musical comedy at the Plaza. Allan Jones and Jane Frazee have the leading roles.

The laugh-provoking "Andy" antics, the traditional man-to-man talks and the eternal love triangle are once again gaily combined in "Andy Hardy's Double Life," at the Curzon. Mickey Roongy, Ann Rutherford and Lewis Stone are cast together.
