DOES INDIGESTION WALLOP YOU BELOW THE BELT?

Help Your Forgotten "28" For
The Kind Of Relief That Helps
Make You Rarin' To Go

More than half of your digestion is done below the belt—in your 28 feet of bowels. So when indigestion strikes, try something that helps digestion in the stomach AND below the belt.

What you may need is Carter's Little Liver Pills to give needed help to that "forgotten 28 feet" of bowels.

Take one Carter's Little Liver Pill before and one after meals. Take them according to directions. They help wake up a larger flow of the 3 main digestive juices in your stomach AND bowels—help you digest what you have eaten in Nature's own way.

Then most folks get the kind of relief that makes you feel better from your head to your toes. Just be sure you get the genuine Carter's Little Liver Pills from your chemist. Price: 1/8.

ROSETTENVILLE-LA ROCHELLE HEBREW CONGREGATION

A special service was held at the Rosettenville Synagogue on Sunday, August 13, to commemorate the liquidation of the bond on the Synagogue.

Rabbi Dr. A. T. Shrock delivered an inspiring sermon and the service was conducted by Rev. A. L. Kaplan, Minister of the Congregation, and Cantor J. Passman of the Ponevez Congregation.

After the service a reception was held at the Masonic Hall, Kenilworth, where the President of the Congregation, Mr. S. Feinstein, presented the Title Deeds to Mr. S. Wies. The large gathering was addressed by Messrs. M. Kenridge, M.P., Mr. G. Saron, general secretary, S.A. Jewish Board of Deputies, and Dr. P. Yutar, representing the United Hebrew Schools.

Rabbi Dr. Shrock, on behalf of the committee members of the Rosettenville-La Rochelle Hebrew Congregation, presented an illuminated address to Mr. S. Feinstein, and paid fitting tribute to his services on behalf of the Congregation.

Musical items were rendered by Cantor J. Passman.

INSPECTION OF HEBREW SCHOOLS IN RHODESIA

Mr. J. Klewansky, Inspector-Instructor, of the S.A. Board of Jewish Education, last week returned from an inspection tour of Hebrew Schools in Rhodesia.

Mr. Klewansky examined the pupils of the Bulawayo, Salisbury (Ashkenazi and Sephardic) and Livingstone Hebrew Schools. In addition to school-inspections Mr. Klewansky delivered a lecture on "The Influence of the Bible on Jewish Education Throughout the Generations" to the Bulawayo Literary Circle. Mrs. J. J. Cohen was in the chair, and Mr. C. Jacobs, Chairman of the Hebrew Education Committee, proposed a vote of thanks.

At Salisbury, Mr. Klewansky addressed a gathering on Education. Rev. Kahn was in the chair.

Mr. Klewansky also visited the Vereeniging Hebrew School, and on August 31, he is scheduled for an inspection of the Durban Hebrew School.

LINE-UP OF PARTIES IN YOUTH

The two recent Zionist Youth conferences in the Transvaal and the Free State were of particular interest, in that it was the first time that the Youth movement divided out along party lines.

Farewell to Cantor S. Mandel

Members of the Talmudical Society, Benoni, gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Shames to bid farewell to Cantor and Mrs. S. Mandel on their departure for Johannesburg. The speeches made reflected the esteem and respect in which Cantor and Mrs. Mandel were held by the community, as well as the Society's deep appreciation of Cantor Mandel's meritorious services as cantor and also as Talmudical scholar.

For Needy Palestine Children

At a jumble sale held by the Kensington Branch of the Women's Mizrahi Organisation on August 3, the sum of £96 10s. was raised for purchasing shoes for needy children in Palestine. This gift will be especially welcome in view of the coming winter.

THE WORLD OF SHOLOM ALEICHEM

This child, too, is father to the man; Kasrievky's humour is in Mottel's bones; Kasrievky is a grown-up Mottel, not as adept as he in the creative transvaluation of values, but still native to the practice. "Let's look at the thing upside down, maybe that's the right way up."

This will help to explain why Kasrievkites who could grin wryly at a pogrom insisted on shedding tears at a wedding. Ostensibly Jews are forbidden to know perfect joy as long as the Jewish homeland is in ruins and the Glory in exile; the breaking of dishes at betrothals and weddings is a memorial of the Destruction.

But the Kasrievkites were not content with this formal acknowledgment. They had a custom which is one of the world's curiosities, the "keening" at the wedding. The badchan, or professional jester, without whom a marriage ceremony would have been as incomplete as without musicians, had to make the guests cry as well as laugh. The bride was seated in state, and the badchan walked to and fro wailing over her as if she were about to be buried. He mourned her lost childhood, and dwelt on the burdens and sorrows of the life on which she was entering. "Weep, little bride, weep, think of the years to come, the pain of motherhood, the separation from your beloved parents, the sadness of old age. . . ." And he kept it up until bride and bridegroom, relatives and guests, were dissolved in tears. This, too, was part of Kasrievky's humour.
