"UNBLOCK" YOUR DIGESTIVE TRACT

And Stop Dosing Your Stomach With Soda and Alkalizers

Don't expect to get real relief from headache, sour stomach, gas and bad breath by taking soda and other alkalizers, if the true cause of your trouble is constipation.

In this case, your real trouble is not in the stomach at all. But in the intestinal tract where 80% of your food is digested. And where it gets blocked when it fails to digest properly.

Thus, what you want for real relief is not soda nor an alkalizer—you want something to "unblock" your intestinal tract. Something to clean it out thoroughly and help Nature get back on her feet.

Get Carter's Little Liver Pills right now. Take them as directed. Then gently and thoroughly "unblock" your digestive tract. This permits your food to move along normally. Nature's own digestive juices can then reach it—and you get genuine relief that makes you feel really good again.

Get Carter's Little Liver Pills at any chemist at 1/3. "Unblock" your intestinal tract for real relief from indigestion.

PROF. BRODETSKY VISITS ROSE GORDON MODEL HEBREW NURSERY SCHOOL

Recent Achievement of S.A. Board of Jewish Education

Before leaving Johannesburg, Prof. S. Brodetsky visited the Rose Gordon Model Hebrew Nursery School building, which is nearing completion, and expressed his admiration of this latest addition to the Chief Rabbi Dr. J. L. Laudau Educational Centre.

In addition to the Nursery School, the grounds of this centre house the Herber House with its outbuildings, the Herber House Synagogue and playgrounds.

Prof. Brodetsky was accompanied by Rabbi J. L. Zlotnik, director of the S.A. Board of Jewish Education; Mr. I. J. Hersch, vice-president, S.A. Board of Jewish Education; Mr. P. Froman, chairman, Herber House and Nursery School Sub-Committee; Mr. A. Misheiker, organiser-secretary, S.A. Board of Jewish Education, and Mr. P. Zaltzman, housemaster, Herber House.

Opening in August

All arrangements are being completed to open the Rose Gordon Model Hebrew Nursery School, which will also serve as a training centre for Hebrew nursery school teachers, in August, 1946. When it opens it will be one of the most up-to-date structures of its kind in the country, as it incorporates all the latest developments in nursery school buildings.

A highly qualified staff will head the school, and it is hoped that by the time it opens a leading educationalist from Palestine will have arrived to take charge of this institution.

In view of the great demand for enrolments, all parents who wish to enrol their children at the Rose Gordon Model Hebrew Nursery School are requested to apply immediately to the secretary, S.A. Board of Jewish Education, P.O. Box 2942, Johannesburg.

The Nursery School is situated at No. 6 South Street (off Harrow Road), Yeoville, Johannesburg.

NEW JEWISH CLUBS COME INTO BEING

great success of the game in that province.

Mr. Siegfried Rosendorff is comparatively young for a middle-aged man. His interest in sport seems to grow instead of diminish. His untiring energy and enthusiasm is an inspiration to any youngster—Jew or Gentile. A past president of the Grey College Re-Unie, a member of the Ramblers Bowling Club, the Bloemfontein Club and hon. vice-president of Old Greys, he is one of the most popular sportsmen in Bloemfontein. It may be a long time since he played rugger, but his interest has not waned.

To-day any Free State sportsman will tell you of the three Rosendorff brothers—M. Rosendorff and K. Rosendorff, of the Tournament Committee, hard-working officials of the O.F.S. and Basutoland Amateur Boxing Association, and Siegfried, who has done so much to put Free State boxing on the map.

Club at Port Elizabeth

WEDGEWOOD PARK COUNTRY CLUB, Port Elizabeth, promises to be another mecca for sportsmen. Thanks to a number of enthusiastic Port Elizabeth Jewish sportsmen, local youth and the community in general have 390 morgen of ground available for sporting and cultural activities. The founders of the club have embarked on a very ambitious scheme. Tennis courts, bowling greens, croquet lawns and a beautiful golf course are included in the programme. When the plans are brought to fruition, Port Elizabeth Jewry will have a sporting centre rivaling Johannesburg's famous Bal-four Park.

Wedgewood Park is situated some 14 miles out of town. There is a pretty farmhouse which serves as the clubhouse, and the scenery is perfect. The club boasts of over 400 members at present, and is open to both Jew and Gentile.

At Oudtshoorn

Taking a lead from Port Elizabeth, Oudtshoorn Jewry have formed a Jewish Club. They, too, have an ambitious programme. All kinds of sport are to be catered for, while interesting debates and lectures on Zionism are already popular features. I visited the club recently and found that it had a real homely atmosphere.

The club runs a billiards team, holds badminton matches and is building up a crack table tennis team. Youth, as usual, is at the helm. Mr. Sam Kaplan has proved himself a capable organising secretary, while Mr. I. J. Kahn, as chairman, has gone out of his way to organise the cultural side.

East London, too, have launched a club of a similar type.

MORE than 23 years ago a small body of enthusiasts formed themselves into a committee styled the O.F.S. and Basutoland Amateur Boxing Association. Among the foundation members was a pioneer of boxing in South Africa, Lionel Nathan. Thanks to this great sportsman, a life member of the S.A.N.A.B.A., boxing in the Free State came to stay and contributed to the prestige of the sport in South Africa. Thanks to Jewish organising genius, the sport became firmly established in the province.

To-day no less a colourful personality than Siegfried Rosendorff holds the reins of that body. Mr. Rosendorff comes from one of the pioneer Jewish families of the Free State. His father was Martin Rosendorff, who played a big part in the early days of the Free State and Basutoland. Martin Rosendorff fought in the Kaffir Wars, and his name is a legend in several Free State dorps.

Sporting Family

The Rosendorffs were a sporting family and in countless ways fostered the art of self defence in the Free State. It is rightly said that they were the backbone of Free State boxing. In 1943 Siegfried was awarded a gold medal award of merit. Associated with boxing in the Free State for over 25 years, he has been president of the O.F.S. Amateur Boxing Association for the past nine years. As chairman of the O.F.S. National Sporting Club and as a member of the executive of the Professional Boxing and Wrestling Board of Control, he has been chiefly responsible for the
