Celebrity Violinist Coming to S. A.

Dr. Bronislaw Fryling

SOUTH Africa is shortly to be honoured by the visit of Dr. Bronislaw Fryling, the celebrity violinist from Poland.

Dr. Fryling was born of Jewish parents in Krakow. At the age of 8 he gave his first public concert. He continued his studies under Prof. Ottaker Sevcik, the renowned Czechoslovakian teacher, and after a few years made an extensive European tour.

When his father died he laid his violin aside for the time being and worked as barrister and scientist at Krakow University. During 1935-1939 he defended Polish Jews against unjust accusations made by Fascists and other reactionaries. His notable pleas for the Jewish cause resulted in the saving of many Jewish lives.

After a series of harassing experiences during the present war, he was captured by the Russians. When they discovered he was an artist, they allowed him to make a tour of the Soviet Union.

When Dr. Fryling tours South Africa he will bring with him his beautiful Stradivarius violin. His programmes will include a first world performance of Gagliano's Summer Phantasie, a work for violin and orchestra.
