

25,000 Attend Folk Dance Festival

JERUSALEM, Tuesday.—More than 25,000 people who came in 2,000 cars, innumerable horse-drawn carts and on foot, attended a folk-dance festival at Kibbutz Dahlia on June 21. The festival lasted throughout the night, and was one of the grandest shows of rejuvenated folk traditions ever seen here.

The youth dancing and singing en masse and indefatigably before thousands of enchanted visitors, was performed against a background of moonlit hills.

The Rabbinate to-day publicly protested against the violation of the Sabbath at the Dahlia dance festival, and the Vaad Leumi addressed a formal communication to the Histadrut.

Arabs and Druzes also took part and the traditional fellaheen Debka sword-dance was most warmly applauded.

The festival was a paragon of orderliness—Dahlia belongs to Hashomer Hatzair—and went off without a hitch. While in previous years the major portion of the programme was devoted to dances of foreign inspiration, from the Cossacks to Scottish reels, this year it was completely Palestinian in theme.

Contribution By Anonymous Donor

JERUSALEM, Tuesday.—A visitor who insisted on remaining anonymous called on the General Secretary of the Jewish Agency last week and handed him a cheque for £4,500. He verbally earmarked the donation "for the activities of the Jewish Agency."

GOLDMANN'S ADDRESS TO WORLD JEWISH CONGRESS

BUENOS AIRES, Monday. — Dr. Nahum Goldmann declared at the opening of the Latin American Conference of the "World Jewish Congress" that concessions would be necessary in order to secure a solution of the Palestine problem, but the Yishuv was sufficiently strong to prevent its exclusion from the World's Agenda.

He denounced terrorism in the strongest terms and declared that the establishment of a Jewish State would not solve the problem of world Jewry, since the majority of Jews would continue to live outside of Palestine for many years.

"THE CITADEL" AT THE METRO

England's aces of the film and theatre world star in M.G.M.'s representation of "The Citadel" by A. J. Cronin. The moving story of a doctor's struggle against hardship and ignorance comes vividly to life, in the hands of Robert Donat, Rosalind Russell, Sir Ralph Richardson, Emyl Williams, Rex Harrison and Penelope Dudley Ward.

PARYS HEBREW LADIES' SOCIETY

Since April the Parys Hebrew Ladies' Society has been very active. With Mrs. Z. Meyerowitz as chairman, Mrs. H. Rubin as treasurer and Mrs. M. Melamed as secretary the Society organised several functions.

At an evening held at the residence of Mrs. J. Wolf, £75 was raised. In May Mrs. L. Loon and T. Talpis gave a card evening at the residence of Mrs. Loon; £56 was raised. Shortly afterwards a Jumble Sale was held and £19 was raised.

The Jewish War Appeal and Youth Aliyah have benefited by these amounts.

Moving Demonstration At Horror Camps

Zionist Flag Among Banners Of Nations

WARSAW, Tuesday.—Fifty thousand people attended the opening of the Museum of Horrors on the site of the former Oswiecim Extermination Camp. Representatives of sixteen countries were present.

Speeches were delivered by the Prime Minister, M. Cyrankiewicz, who said that the Museum would be a monument which will serve to keep the Camp before the eyes of the world so as to prevent a recurrence of the horrors.

Kaddish was recited at the Monument for the million and a half Jews who were exterminated in the Camp. Those present included five hundred survivors of the camp. The Zionist banners were amongst the flags which were carried by the demonstration-march on the two-mile long "Path of Death" towards Birkenau Camp, which contained the gas chambers and the crematorium where four million people were exterminated.
