The ZUID-AFRIKAAN.

CAPE TOWN, JANUARY 14, 1872.

Considerable time has been intentionally allowed that the annual commencement of the year, we should be able to find the speech of President Wolmarans, who has just been appointed by the new year, in the Zuid-Afrikaan, which appears weekly, not to be without the assurance of the nation.

This has undergone a change for the better, and is in its Principles as our side of the arrangement. Mr. C. van der Merwe is not for us to say whether this is a wholesome change or not; but we should always be happy to observe that the services rendered to us by our previous views are renewed.

The first of the new year's events was the appointment of Mr. H. Pretorius as President of the Cape of Good Hope. The appointment was made by the Government, and is expected to have a beneficial effect on the administration of affairs.

The second event of the year was the opening of the new Session of the Legislative Assembly. The Session was opened by the Governor, who read a message from the Government, requesting the Assembly to consider the financial affairs of the Province.

The third event of the year was the opening of the new Session of the House of Assembly. The Session was opened by Mr. H. Pretorius, who read a message from the Government, requesting the Assembly to consider the financial affairs of the Province.

The fourth event of the year was the opening of the new Session of the Legislative Council. The Session was opened by the Governor, who read a message from the Government, requesting the Assembly to consider the financial affairs of the Province.

The fifth event of the year was the opening of the new Session of the House of Representatives. The Session was opened by Mr. H. Pretorius, who read a message from the Government, requesting the Assembly to consider the financial affairs of the Province.

The sixth event of the year was the opening of the new Session of the Legislative Assembly. The Session was opened by the Governor, who read a message from the Government, requesting the Assembly to consider the financial affairs of the Province.

The seventh event of the year was the opening of the new Session of the House of Assembly. The Session was opened by Mr. H. Pretorius, who read a message from the Government, requesting the Assembly to consider the financial affairs of the Province.

The eighth event of the year was the opening of the new Session of the Legislative Council. The Session was opened by the Governor, who read a message from the Government, requesting the Assembly to consider the financial affairs of the Province.

The ninth event of the year was the opening of the new Session of the House of Representatives. The Session was opened by Mr. H. Pretorius, who read a message from the Government, requesting the Assembly to consider the financial affairs of the Province.

The tenth event of the year was the opening of the new Session of the Legislative Assembly. The Session was opened by the Governor, who read a message from the Government, requesting the Assembly to consider the financial affairs of the Province.

The eleventh event of the year was the opening of the new Session of the House of Assembly. The Session was opened by Mr. H. Pretorius, who read a message from the Government, requesting the Assembly to consider the financial affairs of the Province.

The twelfth event of the year was the opening of the new Session of the Legislative Council. The Session was opened by the Governor, who read a message from the Government, requesting the Assembly to consider the financial affairs of the Province.

The thirteenth event of the year was the opening of the new Session of the House of Representatives. The Session was opened by Mr. H. Pretorius, who read a message from the Government, requesting the Assembly to consider the financial affairs of the Province.

The fourteenth event of the year was the opening of the new Session of the Legislative Assembly. The Session was opened by the Governor, who read a message from the Government, requesting the Assembly to consider the financial affairs of the Province.

The fifteenth event of the year was the opening of the new Session of the House of Assembly. The Session was opened by Mr. H. Pretorius, who read a message from the Government, requesting the Assembly to consider the financial affairs of the Province.
