M.D.A. Third Annual Concert For An "Air Ambulance"

The eagerly awaited third annual concert of the MDA will be held next Monday, November 15, at the City Hall, Johannesburg, at 8.15 p.m.

The Youth Symphony Orchestra of the Jewish Musical Institute, under the baton of Solly Aronowsky, will play a pot pourri of Palestinian melodies, "Faust" ballet music and Bizet's popular "L'Arlesienne" Suite.

Cantor Dov Propis

The orchestra also assists a troupe of ballet dancers in a series of contrasting rhythms of the dance, ranging from Palestinian and Jewish folk dances to classical ballet. Amongst the troupe is the talented Hannah Seinick, who also does a solo.

Cantor David Propis and Norman

Zwick, well-known to the Johannesburg public, will sing.

A special dramatic presentation,

Norman Zwick, who will sing at the M.D.A. Concert

"The Journey Home," has been written and produced by Louis Goldman, the well-known author, producer and dramatic critic. Isobel Cort and Mervyn Isaacson take part in this presentation.

The concert is in aid of an "Air Ambulance," one of the essential needs of MDA in Israel, particularly at the present moment.
