Mistaken Identity

A CABLE from Johannesburg, released by the New York office of the Jewish Telegraphic Agency, deals with the ban on Jews in the Transvaal Nationalist Party, and goes on to say:

"It is believed that opponents of the move to lift the ban persuaded the executive committee to drop the matter, thus leaving the prohibition in effect and at the same time avoiding embarrassing discussion. Leib Brandt, one of several Jews who planned to or-

He said the Military Government has co-operated with all religious denominations in Germany. When it became necessary to supply kosher meats, the Military Government was ready and willing to do so for the Jewish residents of Berlin.
