

the men, members of the party, were anything unreasonable in such a situation as that which we have just described...

On Saturday and Tuesday last Signor MASON, who has labored here in the States, on his way to England, favored the Public with two Public Concerts...

It is no longer with a pistol, but with a checked flag, that the African rebellion of that Island did enter into the world...

Mr. J. STEFFEN, Apothecary, Chemist & Druggist, has established himself in No. 13, Longmarket Street, between the Herengracht & Grootendijk...

THE UNDERSIGNED, being duly qualified thereunto by Mr. P. van der V. & Co., who wish to Publicly sell at the residence of Mr. J. P. van der V. & Co. the following property...

FOR SALE, BY PUBLIC AUCTION, in consequence of a dissolution of the Partnership of Messrs. P. van der V. & Co., the valuable concerns, The Grandm's Brewery, with Plant, Stock and Land, will be put up to Public Auction...

NOTICE. In the beginning of next month, the Dry and Pine branches to be sold, with the bold, for account of Mr. J. P. van der V. & Co. Auctioneers, Vondel Av. No. 13.

TO THE EDITOR OF 'DE ZUID-AFRIKAN.' (Continued from our last.) In fine, Sir, on the 25th of April, (what a pity it was not on the 1st) after the Thunders and Japsier Scrim & Co. arrived in the Redoubt of Port Louis...

It is with much satisfaction that we have been informed, by one of our Correspondents, that the old Amateur Company, under the motto—'Tot Ned en Vermaak,' have come to the resolution to comply with the continued applications of the Public, and that they will, before the end of this Season, favour us with some of their theatrical representations.

Mr. J. STEFFEN, Apothecary, Chemist & Druggist, has established himself in No. 13, Longmarket Street, between the Herengracht & Grootendijk...

THE UNDERSIGNED, being duly qualified thereunto by Mr. P. van der V. & Co., who wish to Publicly sell at the residence of Mr. J. P. van der V. & Co. the following property...

FOR SALE, BY PUBLIC AUCTION, in consequence of a dissolution of the Partnership of Messrs. P. van der V. & Co., the valuable concerns, The Grandm's Brewery, with Plant, Stock and Land, will be put up to Public Auction...

NOTICE. In the beginning of next month, the Dry and Pine branches to be sold, with the bold, for account of Mr. J. P. van der V. & Co. Auctioneers, Vondel Av. No. 13.

EDWARD NORTON'S, CÉSAR ANDRÉ'S, An opportunity is now open for an advantageous investment of Capital, as the consumption of salt liquor on the Continent is daily increasing...

TO THE EDITOR OF 'DE ZUID-AFRIKAN.' (Continued from our last.) In fine, Sir, on the 25th of April, (what a pity it was not on the 1st) after the Thunders and Japsier Scrim & Co. arrived in the Redoubt of Port Louis...

It is with much satisfaction that we have been informed, by one of our Correspondents, that the old Amateur Company, under the motto—'Tot Ned en Vermaak,' have come to the resolution to comply with the continued applications of the Public, and that they will, before the end of this Season, favour us with some of their theatrical representations.

Mr. J. STEFFEN, Apothecary, Chemist & Druggist, has established himself in No. 13, Longmarket Street, between the Herengracht & Grootendijk...

THE UNDERSIGNED, being duly qualified thereunto by Mr. P. van der V. & Co., who wish to Publicly sell at the residence of Mr. J. P. van der V. & Co. the following property...

FOR SALE, BY PUBLIC AUCTION, in consequence of a dissolution of the Partnership of Messrs. P. van der V. & Co., the valuable concerns, The Grandm's Brewery, with Plant, Stock and Land, will be put up to Public Auction...

NOTICE. In the beginning of next month, the Dry and Pine branches to be sold, with the bold, for account of Mr. J. P. van der V. & Co. Auctioneers, Vondel Av. No. 13.

EDWARD NORTON'S, CÉSAR ANDRÉ'S, An opportunity is now open for an advantageous investment of Capital, as the consumption of salt liquor on the Continent is daily increasing...

TO THE EDITOR OF 'DE ZUID-AFRIKAN.' (Continued from our last.) In fine, Sir, on the 25th of April, (what a pity it was not on the 1st) after the Thunders and Japsier Scrim & Co. arrived in the Redoubt of Port Louis...

It is with much satisfaction that we have been informed, by one of our Correspondents, that the old Amateur Company, under the motto—'Tot Ned en Vermaak,' have come to the resolution to comply with the continued applications of the Public, and that they will, before the end of this Season, favour us with some of their theatrical representations.

Mr. J. STEFFEN, Apothecary, Chemist & Druggist, has established himself in No. 13, Longmarket Street, between the Herengracht & Grootendijk...

THE UNDERSIGNED, being duly qualified thereunto by Mr. P. van der V. & Co., who wish to Publicly sell at the residence of Mr. J. P. van der V. & Co. the following property...

FOR SALE, BY PUBLIC AUCTION, in consequence of a dissolution of the Partnership of Messrs. P. van der V. & Co., the valuable concerns, The Grandm's Brewery, with Plant, Stock and Land, will be put up to Public Auction...

NOTICE. In the beginning of next month, the Dry and Pine branches to be sold, with the bold, for account of Mr. J. P. van der V. & Co. Auctioneers, Vondel Av. No. 13.

EDWARD NORTON'S, CÉSAR ANDRÉ'S, An opportunity is now open for an advantageous investment of Capital, as the consumption of salt liquor on the Continent is daily increasing...

TO THE EDITOR OF 'DE ZUID-AFRIKAN.' (Continued from our last.) In fine, Sir, on the 25th of April, (what a pity it was not on the 1st) after the Thunders and Japsier Scrim & Co. arrived in the Redoubt of Port Louis...

It is with much satisfaction that we have been informed, by one of our Correspondents, that the old Amateur Company, under the motto—'Tot Ned en Vermaak,' have come to the resolution to comply with the continued applications of the Public, and that they will, before the end of this Season, favour us with some of their theatrical representations.

Mr. J. STEFFEN, Apothecary, Chemist & Druggist, has established himself in No. 13, Longmarket Street, between the Herengracht & Grootendijk...

THE UNDERSIGNED, being duly qualified thereunto by Mr. P. van der V. & Co., who wish to Publicly sell at the residence of Mr. J. P. van der V. & Co. the following property...

FOR SALE, BY PUBLIC AUCTION, in consequence of a dissolution of the Partnership of Messrs. P. van der V. & Co., the valuable concerns, The Grandm's Brewery, with Plant, Stock and Land, will be put up to Public Auction...

NOTICE. In the beginning of next month, the Dry and Pine branches to be sold, with the bold, for account of Mr. J. P. van der V. & Co. Auctioneers, Vondel Av. No. 13.

EDWARD NORTON'S, CÉSAR ANDRÉ'S, An opportunity is now open for an advantageous investment of Capital, as the consumption of salt liquor on the Continent is daily increasing...