TO CORRESPONDENTS. The great length of several of the speeches which have been read at the late Public Meeting of Slave Owners, and which have filled our columns, will be a sufficient apology for our not inserting their valuable communications.

THE ZUID-AFRIKAAN. CAPE TOWN, SEPTEMBER 26, 1832.

PUBLIC MEETING OF SLAVE OWNERS. As we could only communicate in our last paper the Resolutions passed at that Meeting on the 17th instant, we now beg to offer to our readers a translation of an extract of the Speeches held on that occasion as the space of our columns will allow.

Mr. Attorney Baver, rose, and said: If we have means to amend the cause of our present Meeting, the consequence of it will be to the satisfaction of the public, and it is the duty of the meeting to do so.
