

188 GEORGE GORDON

1. Autograph book of Antoinette Truter, daughter of P.J. Truter of Worcester, who married the Rev. Shand.
Note: Loose pages and cards left in book where they were found.
2. Autograph book that belonged to Catherine Shand, daughter of the Rev. Shand of Tulbagh and grand-daughter of P.J. Truter of Worcester, who married Professor George Gordon.
Note: The two autograph books donated by Miss C.M. Gordon, daughter of Robert Shand Gordon, son of George Gordon.
3. Photo album which belonged to Mrs. M.C. Collins, one time owner of Grosvenor House, Stellenbosch.
Note: Donated by Miss C.M. Gordon of the Strand and Mr. G.B. Gordon of Johannesburg, grandchildren of Mrs. Collins.
4. The Holy Bible, containing the Old and New Testaments. London: British and Foreign Bible Society, 1861.
Note: Marriage date of George Gordon and Catherine Shand, names and birth dates of their four children as well as dates of death for George and Catherine Gordon written on flyleaf.
Note: Bible donated by Mrs. A.C. Gordon (widow of R.G. Gordon), son of Alexander John Gordon.
5. Professor Gordon's academic hood.

