YOUR PASSPORT TO FUN

Rock 'n roll: Local artist Jade Green will be performing at The Rock Music Bistro this Saturday night.

enjoy an entertainment-filled weekend

There is a great line-up for the whole weekend.

IT will be an entertainment-filled weekend at The Rock Music Bistro this Saturday and Sunday.

The awesome line-up will start off with local artist Jade Green. Jade, who is a talented musician, will be performing on Saturday at 6pm. His performance will be followed by the sensational duo, Abbey Grange.

Abbey Grange is a two-piece blues rock band from Durban. The band consists of siblings Cara Govender who handles the vocals, keyboard and the guitar and her brother, Yuri, who is the lead guitarist.

Music fans can enjoy their supper while listening to music.

More great performances will follow on Sunday as two incredibly talented musicians, who do not need an introduction, as they have played at The Rock Music Bistro on numerous occasions as well as all over South Africa and internationally. Nibs van der Spuy and Anton Cawthorn-Blazeby, take the stage.

On Sunday music will start at 1.30pm.

Booking is essential for both days. For more information contact or message Shirley 072 1415621
