

'mr. nico'

david marks

Bro - ken win-dows bol-ted doors Dust lies thick u-
 Now times will change times can choose Whose to win and

A Bm E7

pon the floors Soon ma- chins and men will be whose to lose Pro-gress can for ma-ny men

A E7 C#m D D#7

Break-ing down what's part of me
 Be the start or mean the end

E7 A

Through the con-crete through the steel I see things no just a mem'ry just a thought some-thing's sold then

A Bm E7

Copyright © 1967 by Acuff-Rose (S.A.) (Pty.) Limited for the world. All rights reserved. International copyright secured.

United States & Canada controlled by MILENE MUSIC, INC.
 2510 Franklin Road, Nashville, Tennessee 37204

oth-ers will not just wealth but heart-break too some-thing's bought Poor old Nick he ne-ver sold

A C#m D D#

and I wonder what old Nick will do he woul-d't leave till he was told

E7 A

Close up shop Mis-ter Ni-co that's what the big man

D E7 A D E7

said make way for con-crete and steel

A D E7 A F#m

and no one e-ven cared

F#m D E7 A

Now it's

A

make way for con-crete and steel

D E7 A F#m

and no one e-ven cared

D E7 A