Hello Dave,

First to wish you a good end of year and festive season.

Second to thank you for bringing Richie Heavens to SA.

I caught his and your show in Jhb and just loved it.

He must be the warmest and at the same time most consummate showman... I had plenty fun, thanks.

Also enjoyed hearing Godfrey (?) playing the water pipe in your set except that he is still using the same flute I gave him at Splashys and it wasn't in the right key !!

Workwise it's been rather busy with various festivals (Arts Alive and Kaleidoscope in Rustenburg and the shooting of a new 13 part TV series for YoTV to be screened next year.

So I should once again be on the air and am looking for the sponsorship ideas that would allow me to access the schools and teachers I need to see. I must say I am rather disillusioned by the total lack of movement on that side from our Jhb friend and I will be looking for other agents to do that job in the new year.

Plans wise, I am going tomorrow to take part in the Womad festival in the Canaries Islands this week-end.

I'll visit my mother and then do a tour of schools in the UK again, coming back around the 20th December.

If you need to get hold of me, you can at Nickname: jonathan_nevett@msn.com

Anyway, that's all for today.

Stay well and hello to the family.

Pedro.
