

Roger Lucey in cameo . . . at the Chelsea.

Roger Lucey in action at the Chelsea

Fresh from a blitz of Cape Town, where the group appeared at leading rock venues, Roger Lucey is riding high with his new album "Half-Alive" selling well all over the country.

And his previous album, "The Road is Much Longer", remains a steady catalogue seller.

Roger Lucey has established himself as a leading contemporary performer and, despite regular changes in his backing over the past two years, appears to have settled into a comfortable niche with the Marauders.

The line up is: Ilne Hofmeyr on bass and vocals, Tich James on drums and Jonny Blundell on guitar and vocals.

The group perform material from both albums plus an array of new material.

● From next week, Tuesday evenings at the Chelsea will be open for groups, bands, soloists and actors. Anyone who has anything to offer can call 3rd Ear Music at 642-1926 or 642-3810.

● The Chelsea will soon announce the date of their first open Sunday night.

*** ROGER LUCEY AND THE ZUB-ZUB MARAUDERS (Chelsea Theatre): Opening night hassles aside, Roger is still an explosive talent and together with his band provide an endless stream of dynamic original material.—PF (13-3)

Before the Se leaves Cape Town t he is due to meet Koornhof and the Mi ter of Foreign Affai Mr Pik Botha.

Who killed Mr Mdlu

HARD on the heels of the State's admission of liability for Mr Joseph Mdluli's death while in Security Police custody, and the R15 000 out-of-court settlement for his widow, the Deputy Commissioner of Police has issued a public statement. The settlement was not an acknowledgement of State for the death of Engels.
