Missionary than this said Read. Bethelshoe was indeed his name, as it was also that of Van der Kemp; but the latter (setting aside his filthy besetting sin) was a good sort of man, and not a malicious political intriguer. The same cannot be said of his associate and successor Read, for he was always a most notorious intriguer and slanderer...

Such are the Leaders of the London Missionaries in this Colony. Such are the men who have now gone home to bolster up their false confidential reports against Sir Benjamin D'Urban, the Local Government and Authorities, the Army, and the White Colonists...

deceased was seen of the deceased or the Prisoner, all the next morning when she was found lying dead in her bed in the Prisoner's apartment in a state of complete nudity...

Nothing more was seen of the deceased or the Prisoner, all the next morning when she was found lying dead in her bed in the Prisoner's apartment in a state of complete nudity with several extensive abrasions of the skin on the arms, sides, hips and thighs, evidently produced by the deceased having been dragged violently over a rugged road...

Whatsoever the ensuing changes in the state of our society may be, there is none that would more fatally speed the disorganization and downfall of this great Kingdom, than if a band of violence were put forth on the rights and revenues of the Church of England...

The Magistrate (P. B. Borchers, Esq.) deferred judgment for the purpose, as we understood of submitting to the Attorney-General whether the case was one for the summary jurisdiction of the Magistrate, or whether it would be more proper to try the case at the next Sessions.

6th JUNE. Piet Hugo, Ja. of Dassenklop in the Warm Bokkerei Agricultural was arraigned for Assaulting Klara, a Hottentot in his service, near Salt River, with an after at Simonsdorp. The complaint however appeared to be wholly unfounded...

7th JUNE. Steerf household of Mr. C. E. Smith, of Rondebosch for stealing a Shirt and pair of Shoes, the property of his Master, was sentenced to 14 days confinement in the House of Correction.

8th JUNE. Apprentice in the service of Benjamin Green Esq. of Rondebosch was brought up, charged with having caused the death of his wife Susana. From the Depositions it appeared that the deceased was a habitual drunkard...
