

ELECTORAL CODE OF CONDUCT

shall promote conditions to ensure a free and fair election for all and a climate of democratic tolerance without fear or coercion, intimidation or reprisals.

Those who must abide with the Electoral Code of Conduct are:

- Registered political parties
- All nominated candidates
- Any registered party or supporter of such party or candidate

People and parties who violate the act may be punished.

