CAPE TOWN, SEPTEMBER 7, 1841.
The great Parliamentary battle between the present Ministry, and the Tories headed by Sir ROBERT PEEL, has been fought during 4 days, and ended in a defeat of the Whig Government by a majority of one vote.

The affairs of Spain, under the present Government of the Regent, seem to advance towards a constitutional regularity and order.
The question of the Prussian Government with its subjects, about a Representative Government, is not yet settled.
We have postponed the further consideration of our great Colonial question, for the purpose of making room for the European News which we have given above.
