Stellenbosch, Aug. 16, 1842. A. FAURE, Jr., qq.

LANDED PROPERTY.

LIBERAL STRYKGLD.

THIS DAY, FRIDAY, the 26th AUGUST, 1842,

AT 11 O'CLOCK PRECISELY,

MR. JONES WILL SELL ON THE PREMISES,

AT THE REQUEST OF MR. JERRAM,

THE HOUSE & PREMISES,

No. 47, ST. GEORGE'S-STREET,

CORNER OF SHORT-MARKET-STREET,

HIS Property is very substantially built and in thorough repair; it contains on the UPPER STORY, 5 small and 5 lofty spacious Chambers, 20 and 24 feet x 16 feet, and a Store 50 feet long.

PRINCIPAL STORY, a commodious Entrance Hall with a handsome light Staircase, 2 Ante Chambers and 4 lofty spacious Rooms, 20 and 21 feet by 18 feet, and a Store 30 feet x 17 feet together with Offices and a Stable for 4 Horses.

There is a spacious Yard with a double-gate side Entrance, and an abundant supply of Water, which is also conveyed to the Upper Apartments.

From the situation of this Property, being in a commanding thoroughfare, it is abundantly situated for business, either Wholesale or Retail, and is well adapted from the extensive frontage for converting into a Shop. With little alteration it might be made into TWO HOUSES, or would combine a comfortable and spacious DWELLING HOUSE with convenient and COMMODIOUS STORES. Part of the Premises has always been let to considerable advantage and the Rents hitherto derived have been upwards of £280 PER ANNUM.

Conditions of Sale will be as usual; in the meantime the Property is for PRIVATE SALE, and may be viewed upon application at the Premises.

RAMS.

IMPORTANT TO BREEDERS OF FINE WOOLLED SHEEP

THE CARGO OF SUPERIOR FINE BRED HERBINO RAMS, IMPORTED BY MR. THWAITS,

FROM PORT STEPHEN, NEW SOUTH WALES,

PER THE "ST. HELENA SCHOONER,"

WILL BE OFFERED FOR PUBLIC COMPETITION AT

Mr. Jones' Auction on the Parade,

ON SATURDAY,

1st OCTOBER NEXT.

THE Proprietor having, during his stay at New South Wales, ascertained from the best sources of information that the Australian Agricultural Company possessed the finest woolled Sheep and of the purest blood of any in that Colony, he had the above Rams selected from the first class Flocks of that Company, by competent Judges, with great care and particular attention to condition and age for Exportation and Breeding purposes, without regard to Expense.

Separate Certificates of these Rams from the Commission of the Company's affairs at N. S. Wales, may be seen, and further particulars known on application at the Counting House of

A. STREEDMAN, St. George's-street.

These Rams are in excellent condition and are for inspection, and it is distinctly notified that none of them have been allowed to be disposed of by Private Sale, and to prevent disappointment to Country Buyers at a distance, none will be sold previous to the Auction.

Reference is requested to his letter addressed to the Secretary of the Cape Agricultural Society, published in the "Zuid-Afrikaan," 3d June last, by order of the Committee of that Society, and the substance of which was inserted in the "Government Gazette," 27th May last.

EDUCATION. WANTED two Pupils, about fourteen years of age, and of such general attainments, as render them fit to join in a Private Class of a supplementary character.—For particulars apply to Mr. J. J. H. SMYTH, at the Office of this Paper.

PAARL LODGING HOUSE.

THE Underigned begs to intimate that he has fitted up an extensive Lodging House, in a central part of this Village, with view chiefly to the entertainment and accommodation of Indian Gentlemen and other Visitors. The Accommodation in this Village is a Place of temporary Residence for Invalids, it need only be mentioned that in mildness of Climate and purity of Atmosphere, it is surpassed by none, if equalled by any, locality in South Africa.

Excellent Medical attendance is also available.

For the information of Sportsmen it may be mentioned that Game of all sorts is to be met with in the neighbourhood; and now that the Season of Quail shooting is coming on, excellent sport may be had within a few minutes walk of the Village.

A regular communication between this Village and Cape Town thrice a week during the Summer, and twice during the Winter Months is kept up by means of the District Paarl Post Wagon.

Paarl, Aug. 1842. S. J. C. GIRD.

Stabling for Horses, Saddle Horses and Vehicles to let.

NOTICE. In returning thanks to the Public for the kind and liberal patronage he has hitherto experienced in his profession, Mr. GRID begs to intimate that he intends to continue his Apothecary business, and will always have on hand a fresh stock of the most approved Medicines.

Paarl, 22d August 1842.

P. JACS, DE VILLIERS, J. H. son, Test. Executor.

Messrs. DE VILLIERS, FORD & Co., Vendue Adms.

MESSRS. J. H. BAM & Co., BEG to advise the Public, that they have opened a Shop in the well-known Premises of, and next door to the Dispensary of Messrs. KUNHAARD & Co., in Heerengracht, where they profess to deal only in Articles of the best quality, by Wholesale and Retail.

Their Stock of CIGARS and TOBACCO is of the choicest kind, and comprises MANILLAS of a quality rarely, if ever imported into this Colony. Havana, van Zandyks, Chinarunas, &c. &c. &c.

Their SNUFFS, independent of the usual variety of Foreign Snuffs, deserve particular attention for the perfection of their manufacture.

Their CAPE SNUFF, plain and scented, combines with sweetness and purity of flavor, the following qualities:—

1st. It does not act on the respiratory organs like the common Cape Manufacture.

2nd. From an unremitted attention of five years to its manufacture, it has been brought to a perfection that age and climate will not impair the quality, and that age will only improve it. To this invaluable and warranted quality, they beg to call the particular attention of the Trader in the Interior.

3d. Composed of the choicest ingredients only, its flavor is warranted not to be produced by deleterious substances.

4th. It excels in purity and sweetness of flavor the Cape Snuffs generally offered to the Public. To ascertain these qualities, they invite the Shopkeeper to come and try.

Lastly, but not least, they beg to call attention to their EYE SNUFF, an infallible remedy against Rheumatism in the face, weak eyes, rheumatic headaches, shooting pains in the ears and teeth, so peculiar to the climate of this Colony, and so well-known under the formidable name of Zinkens.

This invaluable composition is sold in canisters of 1s. 6d. and 2s. 9d. each, the canisters have wrappers with directions for use.

Be particular to ask for J. H. BAM & Co.'s Eye Snuff, or Snuff for Zinkens.
