ZUID-AFRIKAAN.

CAPE TOWN, OCTOBER 31, 1843.

THERE is but one opinion entertained on the part of the public, in respect of the measures of Reform...

Foremost stands the system of publicity, which, in a most satisfactory manner, has since been adopted...

Thus much has already been effected in the short space of six months. It gives us a fair specimen of what may still further be done.

We ask not now, "are we obliged to pay that paper money?" We think with Mr. Ross, we ought not.

Nor is it only their interest our attention is called to. The trade is also connected with it.

We do not wish to disparage the order issued by Government on the 17th of August last, forbidding any person belonging to any department...

the public business of the office or department to which such functionary belongs...

Is this a fit and proper time to interfere with landed property? No person will answer otherwise than in the negative...

WHEREAS it has been customary for many years past, in cases of Sale of Landed Property by public auction...

At the present moment the value of property has fallen nearly two-thirds. In consequence of this, capitals, under mortgage of landed property...

Whether the system of competition money, and of bonuses upon bidding, is good or pernicious...

THE CONVICT SYSTEM.

A new system is about to be introduced, which will not fail to secure public approbation. To put a convict upon hard labor, without at the same time endeavouring to improve his moral character...

Schools, and of moral and religious instruction generally, will, therefore, form a prominent part of his duty...

The duties of the Head Overseer will not only be to superintend personally the more advanced class in that Gang, but to exercise a general superintendance over the other classes...

The Government Gazette of Friday last announces that applications for the appointment of 3 Superintendents of Convict Stations, 8 Head Overseers of Gangs, and 6 Sub-Overseers of Classes...

IN OFFICE AND OUT OF OFFICE.

Persons in this colony frequently express a strong opinion upon one's altering his views; we therefore copy the following from a late paper...

It is difficult to conceive how certain leading personages in the House of Commons can reconcile to themselves the different and opposite modes of proceeding now adopted by them with the modest opinion upon one's altering his views...

No sooner, however, was Sir J. Graham in the Cabinet as Secretary of State for the whole United Kingdom than Lord Eliot is appointed as his deputy for Ireland, the very man who made himself remarkable in his party by supporting this measure...

Whig government. Upon one occasion his lordship made a most remarkable sacrifice of personal feeling rather than fail to be at his post on the left of the Speaker's chair...

SUPREME COURT.

CRIMINAL SESSIONS, 25 NOVEMBER 1843.

- Calendar of the names of parties severally, and as accused, against whom Bills of Indictment will be presented to the Grand Jury.
1. Ann, a female servant, for the murder on the 4th day of October 1843, at Cape Town, of her new born male child.

Original Correspondence. TO THE EDITOR OF "DE ZUID-AFRIKAAN." THE POST OFFICE.

Amongst the many reforms requisite in the Government establishments of this colony, the Post office is one of the greatest importance, particularly as respects the country offices. Some of the country postmasters, being only deputies of persons holding a sinecure...

resting places, whilst the boy is attending to his horses, at places where he may rest, being unacquainted with the roads, and each posthouse where he must call for a key.

THE REPEAL MOVEMENT.—Another remarkable repeal demonstration has taken place: The meeting was held at Skibbereen, and the Cork Examiner estimates the numbers present at no less than half a million.

IRELAND. THE REPEAL MOVEMENT.—Another remarkable repeal demonstration has taken place: The meeting was held at Skibbereen, and the Cork Examiner estimates the numbers present at no less than half a million.

A voice.—They lie, no doubt. But why accuse us? Only that by exciting us to give the people precipitate advice they may be able to unbridle tyranny against the people. (Vehement cheers.) We are not perjurers; it is a lie to assert it. (Continued cheering.) But we are, I trust, honest and determined Irishmen. (Prolonged applause.)
