DE ZUID-AFRIKAAN

CAPE TOWN, NOVEMBER 19, 1904

Having taken the earliest opportunity to lay before you the main points of the detailed report of the Committee...

The extent of that report, at present, includes the possibility of enlarging on the important points to which the inquiry has limited itself...

The persistent custom of taking contrary to all principles of justice and equity of incarcerating committed prisoners in a dreary jail...

We recommend the report which contains the opinion of the majority of the Committee to the serious consideration of our fellow Colonists...

THE DUTY OF FRENCH BRANDY

With great satisfaction we have to state that our Wine-growers, having been informed of the duty on French Brandy...

An application for leave has already been forwarded to His Excellency the Governor...

Original Correspondence

To the Editor of "De Zuid-Afrikaan."

Cape Town, November 17, 1895.

"Sir, You are aware that while the Cape Public has often heard of the duties of the Government...
