Onder zulke omstandigheden, zul het natuurlyk stoffe van verwondering opleveren, dat er door de Boeren die in dien toestand verkeeren gene middelen benamd worden om eenen genoegzamen voorraad waters voor het zomer-saizoen te verzamelen: Iedere plaats heeft, wel is waar, eene dam; maar, de, onderwinding beeft aanhoudend bewezen, das die dammen niet aan het doel beuntwoorden, want, tenzy er tegen het einde des jaars sterke regens vallen, zal er stellig eens schaarschheid van water syn in January of February .-- Is dit misschien toeteschryven aan derzelver con-structie een gebrek in diepte, lengte of breedte, of aan de elechtheid van hedem? Of is het, omdat de meeste Boeren, een dam als genoegtaim beschouwen? Het eene of andere, dezer, gebreken moet er bestaan, en daar het voor de Boeren van het grootste aanbelang is de wezenlyke oorzaak te ontdekken, beschouwen wy dat het hun der moeite waard is het noodig underzoek te doen en de vereischte verbeteringen daartestellen.

Wat onszelven betreft, meenen wy dat het voornaamste gebrek zal bevonden worden te bestaan in het santal dammen op elka plaats. Wy hebben velen bezocht, en op de meesten derzelve vonden wy slechts een, en die één slechts eene geringe noeveelheid waters bevattende zelfs in de maanden November en December. field of competition. Is it lukewarmness, or indifference, or what? Surely a little more activity and care should be displayed where our interests are concerned, for when and as often as we neg-lect the opportunity to improve these interests, we add to the ostelogue of our missives. Whilst dilating on this subject, we deem it a fit them when they deserve it. If we are brought beto e the trans at the compensations paid for the city improvements Court of "Police Correctionnelld" wa will make our com-plaints in London; and obtain the peeel of a low so detests ble that it only requires to let Lord Greek know of its stict; in which dwell two millions of living human beings, PEREDRINS MATTLAND'S Financial Minute, ble that it only requires to let Lord Grey, koon of He exis Sir PEREDRING MATTLAND'S Financial minute, will ever be constructed? A great many fine words were exchanged on the subject at the time; and if it deserved the serious consideration of Government then, we can see no reason to the contrary at present. When once a subject is mooted, and its importance fairly admitted, it should not— "Governments that despise and persecute the liberty of the press and those who give free expression to their opinion bat vigorously carried out. In the next Financial Minate, therefore, we hope to see a grant set apart for this particular object, and and fail into a grievous error; they are wrong to suppose that the art of governing is confined to a time of valuer error into a governmental routine. This instance are a grant of the most is a set of the se On Friday, the 4th instant, a fire originated on the farm of Mr. Carolus Freinlich, at Great Drakenstein, by which his Dwelling House and adjoining buildings—occupying an extent of about 100 feet,—were laid in ashes. All exertions to stay the destructive element were fruitless, and the greatest portion of the goods and furniture in the dwelling house more destructive of about furniture in the destructive more more fruitless. when each citizen claims the right of expressing his opinion on public matters : the blind confidence of the people has ceased ; they wish to know the motives of the laway they ceased ; they wish to stow the motive of the swert they will only have what is founded on reason, justice and equity.²⁴ But it is not Florence alone that will serve as an example for our government. Even is Turkey there is a progressive movement. In short the whole world is moving fowards intelligence and liberty exceptions poor local government. A long time ago we used but in vain for industrial schools, What the movement do have in for industrial chools.

Helgesversquare and Bethnal-green are the two poles of modern civilization. Pros Putney and Fulham to Green with and Blackwall ; from Highgate and thampstead to Tooting and Dalwich, we find nothing but houses in continuous rows. In the suburbs, indeed, an occasional nursery-ground is of not unforquent occurrence. In the very centre of the town there are the large parks, without whose parifying influence Londoners would fall victims to early deceptude and death—beyond these nothing but palates; monses; shops, gools, markets, church-yards, theatres, huu, hoyels, and cellars. As you advance towards the centre of the circle whose circumference we have indicated, a square fout of ground tis of more value add to the estalogue of our missries. Whilst dilating on this subject, we deem it a fit occasion to ask the Han'ble the Secretary to Go-them when they deserve it. If we are brought before the remment whether the mater should be required to do, is to reprove them when they deserve it. If we are brought before the court of " Police Correction out?"

The entire loss is estimated at £300 at least, and it is a very deplorable circumstance that the neglect. of the unfortunate sufferer in this instance, (although attributable to unavoidable circomstances) has deprived him of all claim to insurance; the polis, we hear, having finally expired two days before the

We are however gratified to state, that some friends have adopted the laudable resolution to exert themselves, in order, as far as may be praciscable, to repair the loss; and that Mr. J. C. Skead, Postmaster at Frenchhoek, and Mr. H. de Williers, on his farm at Groot Drakenstein, have opened subscription lists for that purpose. The liberal spirit ever displayed by the Agriculturists to assist each other in such cases, renders monecessary any arguments we might adduce to stimulate them in the performance of this work of charity.
