ZEN, 1848. ... word by ...

THE ZUID-AFRIKAAN. CAPETOWN, FEBRUARY 17, 1848. We have ever sided with those who are of opinion that the unconditional introduction of Kaffir laborers can be of no advantage to the Colony.

On Tuesday last Messrs. MONK and DE VILLIERS appeared before the Resident Magistrate of Cape Town to answer a charge preferred against them by the Municipality, they having refused to pay certain dues for cattle on their way to the shambles.

MOSSEL BAY AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY. A Correspondent, who writes from Mossel Bay, gives the following description of the proceedings at the first Show Meeting of the above Society.
