A grand concert will be given by the Philharmonic Society at the New South Hall, on Saturday evening, June 23rd, at 8 o'clock. The concert will consist of music by Beethoven, Mozart, and others, and will be under the direction of Mr. W. H. E. Mitchell. The prices of admission are as follows: adults five cents; children, three cents. The concert is to be followed by a dance. In connection with the concert, a supper will be held in the New South Hall, commencing at 6 o'clock. The supper will be served by the ladies of the town, and will consist of a variety of dishes. The supper will be priced at one dollar. The proceeds of the concert and supper will be devoted to the support of the Philharmonic Society. All persons interested in music and dancing are cordially invited to attend the concert and supper. The New South Hall is to be reservoired for the occasion, and arrangements have been made for the comfort and convenience of the guests. The concert and supper will be a fitting climax to the summer season, and will no doubt be a great success. All persons interested are requested to attend, and to contribute to the success of the event.

The German Parliament.

The German Parliament is now in session, and the debates are of great interest. The government is seeking to carry out its policy of expansion, and the opposition is trying to prevent it. The debates are充满着 passion, and the atmosphere is of high tension. The government is determined to carry out its program, and the opposition is determined to prevent it. The debates are likely to be long and arduous, and the outcome is uncertain. The government is confident of victory, and the opposition is confident of defeat. The debates are a symbol of the struggle for power in Germany, and they are a warning to the world of the dangers of expansion.

The Affairs of the Netherlands.

The Affairs of the Netherlands are in a state of flux. The government is seeking to maintain its power, but the opposition is trying to topple it. The government is determined to stay in power, and the opposition is determined to remove it. The Affairs of the Netherlands are a symbol of the struggle for power in the Netherlands, and they are a warning to the world of the dangers of revolution. The government is confident of victory, and the opposition is confident of defeat. The Affairs of the Netherlands are a symbol of the struggle for power in the Netherlands, and they are a warning to the world of the dangers of revolution.
