THESE ZUID-AFRIKAAN. CAPETOWN, AUGUST 29, 1850. There is no doubt that if the Legislative Council, at present existing in this Colony, should avail itself of the power which has been so liberally bestowed on it, the Colonists will ere long be in possession of a Constitution in every respect calculated to give satisfaction...

It cannot be denied, that the presence of some Members elected by the people, has in some respect changed the character of the body itself; but it is equally true that a blind adherence to the absurd Rules, by which its proceedings were hitherto shackled and which rendered free discussion a thing altogether unknown...

We confess that it is with reluctance we would suspect his Excellency of an intention signifiable, but knowing the power possessed by him in this behalf, we do not consider it inappropriate to remind him on this occasion, that the public expect from himself and his official members a display of the same liberal disposition which distinguishes the gracious determination of Her Majesty to allow free Institutions to this Colony...

DIVISIONAL ROAD BOARDS FOR STELLENBOSCH AND THE PAARL. August 19, 1850. It will not astonish any one, acquainted with the history of the Stellenbosch Divisional Road Board, that there are at present no many complaints, disapprobation, or unpopularity against the Board, but, as far as I am aware, none of our correspondents have endeavored to trace the real origin thereof...

ADDRESS AND PUBLIC DINNER TO SIR ANDRIES STOCKENSTROM, Bt. Beaufort (West) 17th August 1850. As soon as it was made known that the original founder of this Town, Sir A. REPLY TO THE ADDRESS. We, the undersigned, inhabitants of the division and town of Beaufort, beg leave to congratulate you upon your safe arrival amongst us, on your way to take your place in the Legislative Council, to which we, in common with almost every other division of the Colony, have had the honor of electing you...
