THE ZUID-AFRIKAAN.

CAPE TOWN, JUN. 13, 1848.

NOTES, as usually given this year, by the Director of the "Zuid-Afrikaan," have been published, which will be found in the next number of the paper.

FRONTIER AFFAIRS.

(EVEN OF THE WEEK.

Barbara's Pass, June 12.-Great anxiety is being expressed here as to the result of the meeting to be held on Monday last, at which it is understood that the Chief of the Police will be present to give a detailed account of the proceedings on that occasion.

The following is the Government Notice read at the meeting:

"TALKT TO THE RESIDENT.

At the last meeting of the Committee, to which the matter referred was addressed, it was decided to consult the Chief of the Police, in order to obtain a full and complete account of the proceedings on the night of the 10th of June last, when the excitement took place, and to have the matter investigated by a competent officer.

KOEFACE, June 23.-About dark on the night of the 10th of June, a large party of Boers, armed with carbines and pistols, entered the village of Kohafe, burnt the houses, and killed and wounded several of the inhabitants.

JAMES MILLER, June 24.-A letter has been received from Mr. Miller, who states that he and his family have been in possession of the farm for many years, and that he has never before had any trouble with the Boers.

"We have been compelled to abandon the farm, and to leave the house and all our effects.

"The Boers have been very violent, and have threatened to destroy our property.

"We have been forced to take refuge in the Cape, and to seek the protection of the Government."
SALE OF DUTCH BOOKS.

On Thursday Evening, at 6 o'clock,

The 1st January,

AT MULLINAX'S BOOKS, No. 14, WATER STREET.

In compliance with the 34th Statute, p. 7, chapter 21, of the British Legislature, on the 6th day of November, 1819,Public Sale of a portion of the Library of Henry Rudd & Co.

TRADE. E. RUDD.

NEW GOODS.

In compliance with the 34th Statute, p. 7, chapter 21, 1819.

FORSALE.

ON TUESDAY,

The 15th of July.

Will be sold on the premises.

J. Corson, Aged 47 years, of the Phoenix, deceased, who was a retailer of Wholesale and Grog Whisky, and Turf, and the premises have been left to the survivors of the family of the deceased. The premises are situated on the corner of the Bridge Street and the Phoenix Street, and are the subject of this advertisement.

The premises are situated on the corner of the Bridge Street and the Phoenix Street, and are the subject of this advertisement.

PUBLIC SALE.

ON SUNDAY, AUGUST 10th, 1823.

With liberal Commissions Money and Goods.

To be sold by Auction, at 9 o'clock.

On account of the late invasion and the want of public credit, the premises have been let out to the Public Body, and are to be sold by Auction.

STELLENDOSCH.

A parcel of Dutch Road Books, all bound in the Dutch Book, at Stellenbosch.

The auctioneer is required to sell the above books at a public sale, at Stellenbosch.

Lost.

Strayed from the land, or her farm, about three miles from the house of Mr. Rudd, near the farm, a horse.

Wanted.

In consequence of the late invasion, a large parcel of Dutch books, at Stellenbosch.

The auctioneer is required to sell the above books at a public sale, at Stellenbosch.