Supplement to the Zuid-Afrikaan, September 9, 1852.

THE ZUID-AFRIKAAN.

SEPTEMBER 9, 1852.

The fact that General Cæsar had broken his promise, and the assurance to those who feared that by this course the Government might have been discouraged from acting, were disapproved by the Executive, nor did their apprehensions receive any confirmation in the expectation of another expedition against Kaffirland.

The General-in-Chief had his Proclamation read to him on his request, and the date of the issue was postponed to the 20th of this month. Whether it would be executed or not, was left to be determined by the wishes of the Government.
