THE ZUID-AFRIKAAN.

GROTE TOWN, SEPTEMBER 28, 1839.

Front the Clothing Co." now in possession of Mr. John Benjamin, who is a partner in the business, and has leased the premises from the company. The premises are situated in the center of the town, and are considered the most convenient and well-located store in the place. The building is large, and has ample room for the display and sale of goods. Mr. Benjamin has a good stock of clothing, including gentlemen's suits, overcoats, and other articles. He is a man of good character, and is well prepared to transact business in a satisfactory manner. The premises are open for inspection by the public, and are likely to attract a good deal of attention.

FRONTIER AFFAIRS.

(From the Graham's Town Journal, Sept. 1.)

By the Redoubt, the General and Commander in Chief,

Cape Town, September 19, 1842.

To the Members of the Provisional Government of the Cape of Good Hope:

Gentlemen,—The affairs of the frontier have lately been much agitated by the recent events in the Eastern Province. The operations of the British forces have been conducted with great energy and success, and the enemy have been driven from their positions, and forced to retreat beyond the Danger Pass. The province is now in a state of quiet, and the peace of the frontier is preserved.
