

THE ZUID-AFRIKAAN.

CAPE TOWN, MARCH 3, 1851.

NOTWITHSTANDING positive proof to the contrary, the Graham's Town Journal unblushingly persists in its aspersions upon the character of the Dutch Farmers engaged in checking the enemy.

We again subjoin an extract of a letter from Coleberg, proving beyond the shadow of a doubt, that Mr. JOUBERT, and those engaged with him, were fully justified in doing as they did.

Were we disposed to retort, or rather to detract from the merits of the troops in Kaffraria, we might instance the leaders—Sir Harry Smith, General Somerset and Colonel Mackinnon.

The following is a copy of a letter from Adam Kok, the Griqua Captain, who went with 200 of his men with Major Warden in the Smithfield District, to one of his subjects.

"We had an engagement yesterday with the Tambookies, who were two Griquas, two Boers, two Fingoes and two English were killed, making a total of eight men killed."

The following taken from the Banner of the 20th and 15th, and the Morning Chronicle of the 16th January, comprises the main points of European news received by the mail steam packet Propontis, which arrived here on Saturday last.

The following additional particulars are given in an extract of a letter from Coleberg appearing in the Cape Town Mail of Saturday last:

In passing through that part of Tambookieland which belongs to the late chief Umfira's widow Nonnesi, she and all the women came out peaceably to meet him.

seem's cattle, and took between 9 and 10,000 oxen, and 600 horses, many of the oxen and horses being stolen ones, and some imagined at once.

It is said that the Governor has issued instructions for the purchase of 150 horses, for the service of the troops on the frontier, and that Messrs. Field and Hope have started to the country to make the necessary purchases.

When the farmers beyond the Vaal River were last year accused of having driven Mr. Fredoux, the English missionary, out of the country, because they were opposed to the Gospel being preached to the natives, we advised the public to give no credence to such statements, reminding them of previous wholly unfounded charges made by base slanderers against their expatriated countrymen.

We advised Mr. Pretorius, whose name, as the leader of the farmers in that region, had been connected with that charge, to leave no means untried to clear himself and his countrymen of it in a manner the most satisfactory.

"Mr. Pretorius," says the Friend of the Sovereignty, "had expressed regret to the Rev. Mr. Fredoux, of Motito, that Mr. F. had been formerly obstructed in his journey through the Interior, and he has been furnished with an authentic copy of Mr. Pretorius's letter to Mr. Fredoux."

To Mr. Fredoux, Missionary. Sir,—In your late visit to this country, you happened also to come to me at my place, but did not acquaint me with your intentions, which I ascribe to deficiency in the language.

"I remain with much esteem, Your obedient servant, A. W. J. PRETORIUS, Com. Gen."

The following taken from the Banner of the 20th and 15th, and the Morning Chronicle of the 16th January, comprises the main points of European news received by the mail steam packet Propontis, which arrived here on Saturday last.

The following additional particulars are given in an extract of a letter from Coleberg appearing in the Cape Town Mail of Saturday last:

In passing through that part of Tambookieland which belongs to the late chief Umfira's widow Nonnesi, she and all the women came out peaceably to meet him.

The following additional particulars are given in an extract of a letter from Coleberg appearing in the Cape Town Mail of Saturday last:

In passing through that part of Tambookieland which belongs to the late chief Umfira's widow Nonnesi, she and all the women came out peaceably to meet him.

The principal thing in the West Indies continues to be the cholera, which has so frequently ravaged the country.

The agitation relative to the Papal Hierarchy has of necessity abated, forasmuch as the work is now completed.

On the 14th inst. I proceeded from Fort White by the old Drift of the Keiskamma to Fort Hare.

On the 14th inst. I proceeded from Fort White by the old Drift of the Keiskamma to Fort Hare.

On the 14th inst. I proceeded from Fort White by the old Drift of the Keiskamma to Fort Hare.

On the 14th inst. I proceeded from Fort White by the old Drift of the Keiskamma to Fort Hare.

On the 14th inst. I proceeded from Fort White by the old Drift of the Keiskamma to Fort Hare.

On the 14th inst. I proceeded from Fort White by the old Drift of the Keiskamma to Fort Hare.

On the 14th inst. I proceeded from Fort White by the old Drift of the Keiskamma to Fort Hare.

On the 14th inst. I proceeded from Fort White by the old Drift of the Keiskamma to Fort Hare.

On the 14th inst. I proceeded from Fort White by the old Drift of the Keiskamma to Fort Hare.

On the 14th inst. I proceeded from Fort White by the old Drift of the Keiskamma to Fort Hare.

On the 14th inst. I proceeded from Fort White by the old Drift of the Keiskamma to Fort Hare.

On the 14th inst. I proceeded from Fort White by the old Drift of the Keiskamma to Fort Hare.

On the 14th inst. I proceeded from Fort White by the old Drift of the Keiskamma to Fort Hare.

On the 14th inst. I proceeded from Fort White by the old Drift of the Keiskamma to Fort Hare.

On the 14th inst. I proceeded from Fort White by the old Drift of the Keiskamma to Fort Hare.

On the 14th inst. I proceeded from Fort White by the old Drift of the Keiskamma to Fort Hare.

On the 14th inst. I proceeded from Fort White by the old Drift of the Keiskamma to Fort Hare.

We congratulate our fellow colonists at Graaff-Reinet and other parts that they are now unceasingly hastening forward to the general defence of the country.

By a strong detachment of 1500 under Major General Somerset, and a large body of Fingoes, who were sent to that place, were to march before daybreak yesterday morning to attack the rebel encampment at Blinkwater.

On the 14th inst. I proceeded from Fort White by the old Drift of the Keiskamma to Fort Hare.

On the 14th inst. I proceeded from Fort White by the old Drift of the Keiskamma to Fort Hare.

On the 14th inst. I proceeded from Fort White by the old Drift of the Keiskamma to Fort Hare.

On the 14th inst. I proceeded from Fort White by the old Drift of the Keiskamma to Fort Hare.

On the 14th inst. I proceeded from Fort White by the old Drift of the Keiskamma to Fort Hare.

On the 14th inst. I proceeded from Fort White by the old Drift of the Keiskamma to Fort Hare.

On the 14th inst. I proceeded from Fort White by the old Drift of the Keiskamma to Fort Hare.

On the 14th inst. I proceeded from Fort White by the old Drift of the Keiskamma to Fort Hare.

On the 14th inst. I proceeded from Fort White by the old Drift of the Keiskamma to Fort Hare.

On the 14th inst. I proceeded from Fort White by the old Drift of the Keiskamma to Fort Hare.

On the 14th inst. I proceeded from Fort White by the old Drift of the Keiskamma to Fort Hare.

On the 14th inst. I proceeded from Fort White by the old Drift of the Keiskamma to Fort Hare.

On the 14th inst. I proceeded from Fort White by the old Drift of the Keiskamma to Fort Hare.

On the 14th inst. I proceeded from Fort White by the old Drift of the Keiskamma to Fort Hare.

On the 14th inst. I proceeded from Fort White by the old Drift of the Keiskamma to Fort Hare.

On the 14th inst. I proceeded from Fort White by the old Drift of the Keiskamma to Fort Hare.

On the 14th inst. I proceeded from Fort White by the old Drift of the Keiskamma to Fort Hare.

Information has come to us from Fort Hare, largely corroborating the report made by Mr. Shepstone, purporting that General Somerset had directed the cessation of hostilities against the rebel Hottentots at Shiloh.

By a strong detachment of 1500 under Major General Somerset, and a large body of Fingoes, who were sent to that place, were to march before daybreak yesterday morning to attack the rebel encampment at Blinkwater.

On the 14th inst. I proceeded from Fort White by the old Drift of the Keiskamma to Fort Hare.

On the 14th inst. I proceeded from Fort White by the old Drift of the Keiskamma to Fort Hare.

On the 14th inst. I proceeded from Fort White by the old Drift of the Keiskamma to Fort Hare.

On the 14th inst. I proceeded from Fort White by the old Drift of the Keiskamma to Fort Hare.

On the 14th inst. I proceeded from Fort White by the old Drift of the Keiskamma to Fort Hare.

On the 14th inst. I proceeded from Fort White by the old Drift of the Keiskamma to Fort Hare.

On the 14th inst. I proceeded from Fort White by the old Drift of the Keiskamma to Fort Hare.

On the 14th inst. I proceeded from Fort White by the old Drift of the Keiskamma to Fort Hare.

On the 14th inst. I proceeded from Fort White by the old Drift of the Keiskamma to Fort Hare.

On the 14th inst. I proceeded from Fort White by the old Drift of the Keiskamma to Fort Hare.

On the 14th inst. I proceeded from Fort White by the old Drift of the Keiskamma to Fort Hare.

On the 14th inst. I proceeded from Fort White by the old Drift of the Keiskamma to Fort Hare.

On the 14th inst. I proceeded from Fort White by the old Drift of the Keiskamma to Fort Hare.

On the 14th inst. I proceeded from Fort White by the old Drift of the Keiskamma to Fort Hare.

On the 14th inst. I proceeded from Fort White by the old Drift of the Keiskamma to Fort Hare.

On the 14th inst. I proceeded from Fort White by the old Drift of the Keiskamma to Fort Hare.

On the 14th inst. I proceeded from Fort White by the old Drift of the Keiskamma to Fort Hare.

