The Royal Mail Steamer Queen of the South arrived in Table Bay yesterday morning. She left Southampton on the 4th, and St. Vincent on the 20th April. She has 84 passengers for Australia, but no mail or letters for the Cape. War had been formally declared against Russia, and there is a report current that Kainfat and all the other fortresses on the Danube had fallen into the hands of the Russians.

The Great Britain was to sail on the 13th April, would touch here, and probably bring out the monthly mail.

DR. ROMERSHAUSEN'S EYE ESSENCE,
For preserving, improving, and strengthening the sight.

D. R. C. F. JURITZ & Co., Sole Agents to the Proprietor, beg to notify the arrival of a small supply of the above, and request those who have already applied, to make early application, at their

ANGEL DISPENSARY,
No. 29, LOOP-STREET, CAPE TOWN.

Where also Directions and Certificates of its beneficial effects will be supplied in English, Dutch and German.

This Essence has now been proved here, to be one of the best and safest remedies for the Eyes, to which the following Certificates, besides numerous others, bear testimony, the first from the Rev. HANN of the Rhenish Missionary Society in Damaraland, at present in Europe, the other from the Rev. SCHONENBERG, of the same Mission, now in Cape Town.

1.—"During my long stay in the Interior of South Africa I was troubled with a continual and severe inflammation of the Eyes, which nothing could alleviate, I applied Dr. Romershausen's Eye Essence, which soon removed my complaint most effectually, not the least trace of weakness remaining, unlike other remedies; a similar result was obtained by others."

(Signed) C. HUGO HANN, Rhenish Missionary.

2.—"In addition to the above, I beg to state that Dr. Romershausen's Eye Essence has often cured Eye disease, with which the natives are afflicted, after a single application. With my family it has acted as a preventive against that affliction."

(Signed) H. SCHONENBERG, Rhenish Missionary from Damaraland.

Take Notice.

THE Undersigned kindly requests a settlement of all Outstanding Accounts for the last and former years before the 1st of June next, to prevent legal proceedings.

N.B. Liberal Competition Money and Bonus. G. L. STEYTLER, G. A. Auctioneer. Paarl, May 8, 1854. REFRESHMENTS WILL BE GIVEN.

To the Electors of Cape Town and Green Point.

GENTLEMEN.—It was with much regret that I felt myself so indisposed on Wednesday last, when our worthy Civil Commissioner declared the State of the Poll; it was quite impossible for me then to thank you in the manner I wished, the last was that on the preceding day, at noon, one of my large coal yards ignited by spontaneous combustion, and until within a very short time of my entering the Court Room, I had not been able to leave the spot. The previous night had been cold and wet, and through the whole of it my exertions had been used to quench the fire, which, I am happy to say, I fully succeeded in, I however, caught a severe cold, and that, together with the coal dust, which had settled on my chest, made it very difficult for me to breathe, and quite impossible to address you.

Allow me then, Gentlemen, to congratulate you on the highly satisfactory manner in which the whole of the proceedings, during the past week, were conducted. It reflects the highest credit on all who were concerned in it, and is a further proof of what unanimity, when tested, can accomplish. You have honored me by electing me as one of your representatives to our first Parliament. That honor I duly appreciate, and I trust, that with the co-operation and support of my colleagues, I shall be able fully to satisfy your expectations. There is, however, much, very much, to be done. You must not be too sanguine; but, as has already been shown, willing hearts in a good cause can perform what they desire to carry out.

To you, Gentlemen, who so kindly undertook the arduous duties of my Committee, and to whom I am so much indebted for your present position, allow me most gratefully to acknowledge your services, and thus publicly to thank you for your kind exertions on my behalf.

Our thanks are also due to the Polling Officers, for the courteous manner in which they conducted their proceedings, and the order evinced throughout, and which reflects much credit both on themselves and all who took part in them.

In conclusion, Gentlemen, allow me to say that I am your representative, your servant; it is to you I look for countenance and support; you must guide and direct me; should I stumble or err you must uphold, you must support me; it is on your assistance I rely, to enable me satisfactorily to perform my duty, and it is with such confidence, I trust, that you will not have reason to regret the choice you have made.

I have the honor to be, Gentlemen, Your most obedient very humble servant, HERCULES C. JARVIS.

Somerset Road, May 19, 1854.

To the Electors of the City of Cape Town.

GENTLEMEN.—I sincerely regret that my professional avocations called me to the Paarl late on Monday evening, the 15th instant, and that on my return at midday on Wednesday last, I felt myself so exceedingly indisposed that I was unable to attend at the official declaration of the poll, to offer you my most heartfelt thanks for the honor you have conferred upon me in electing me as one of the Representatives of this Metropolis.

Believe me that I now address you under a deep sense of obligation for the exertions made to secure my election, not only by my Committee but also by a great number of my fellow Colonists amongst whom I was proud to observe so many of the old and respectable inhabitants of this city and neighbourhood; the proof of which is given me of your confidence cannot be otherwise than flattering to my feelings.

I do admit that at the commencement of the contest I was in some doubt whether the kind partiality of some of my friends had not inspired me with too much confidence as to the possibility of my election, but the result, I am happy to say, has justified our joint expectations.

Gentlemen, I shall not make any observations which might be considered as an intemperate nature, nor would I be justified in so doing. The general result of the contest, has, I am certain, been satisfactory to a vast majority of the Electors.

Each of the candidates, as far as I could observe and hear, has had amongst his supporters individuals of every class and standing in society. There are few who have watched the proceedings of the Candidates, their Committees, and their supporters generally, who will not admit that our proceedings have been conducted with regularity and in due order; great pains were no doubt taken to secure votes for particular candidates, but certain I am that nothing in the remotest degree approaching to bribery and corruption could be imputed to any one of the candidates or their committees.

Gentlemen, you were determined that no one should enter the House of Assembly without your concurrence and nod; you have vindicated your rights;—you did not exact nobly from any one of your Representatives, and well it is that we are enabled to enter the House of Assembly as independent men and unfettered.

GENTLEMEN.—We feel that your rights and your liberties are in a great measure in our hands. Upon the proceedings of the first Parliament will depend in a great measure the real or real of South Africa. That your representatives will not disappoint your expectations, and in due order, great pains were no doubt taken to secure votes for particular candidates, and can only add, that, as I have no selfish object in view in entering the House of Assembly, I shall endeavor to do all I possibly can for the benefit of this my native Country. Allow me once more, Gentlemen, to thank you most cordially and most sincerely for the honor you have conferred upon me, and believe me to remain, Your Obedient Servant, F. L. C. BICCARD, M. D.

It is situated about 1/2 of an hour from the Town of Worcester, and forms one of the most comfortable residences in this District; and as no expense has been spared in building the Dwelling House as well as the Out-buildings—consisting of 3 Stables, Coach or Wagon House, Wine Cellar, Dairy, Servants' Rooms, &c., &c., in proper order, it offers a most favorable opportunity, inasmuch as it can be entered upon at once without any outlay or expense.

The Garden and Orchard areas (at this moment in the best order, and owing to the proximity of the Farm to the Town, it yields a handsome income.

With regard to the Dairy and the breed of Pigs, Poultry, Cattle, &c., it is needless to say anything to those who are acquainted with the locality of the Farm, and know, moreover, the large harvests gathered by the owner. Should the Purchaser be disposed to lay out a Vineyard, so situated can be more favorable. Its fertility can only be judged of by personal inspection on the spot.

The above Farm is for Private Sale, and if not sold before the 25th of May, it will be Publicly put up on that day. Particulars and Conditions of Sale may be ascertained at the residence of Dr. PHILCOX, or at Messrs. LAGROEN, BACK, and MEYER, Vendue Administrators.
