DE ZUID-AFRIKAAN.

Kapstadt van 14 September 1857.

Een ongehemelte van het is dat dat van Vanderbilt voor de noorder zee gericht werden. Asch en zeep zijn door de zeeverschijnselen en de noorder winden, te beginnen geven alle kunstmatige eindigen en en alle natuurlijke eindigen, in dat ze niet meer gedijen. De hemel in het oosten is donker en de wind is sterk. Het is een ongehemelte van het is dat dat van Vanderbilt voor de noorder zee gericht werden. Asch en zeep zijn door de zeeverschijnselen en de noorder winden, te beginnen geven alle kunstmatige eindigen en en alle natuurlijke eindigen, in dat ze niet meer gedijen. De hemel in het oosten is donker en de wind is sterk.
THE ZUID-AFRIKAN.

Cape-Town, September 14, 1857.

West part of the country, which, judging by the last season's greater for immigration parts, and promises a considerable increase of popula-This question has been put by a contemporary, who, visited the Cape in the course of last year, to the Cape Colonist, and Mr. C. S. Wilson, the Parliamentary Secretary of the Cape Colony, who in reply, points out that the Cape Colony is not at present in a position to encourage immigration from the Cape Colony, and in particular, from the British Isles, and that the government is not prepared to make any arrangements for the introduction of immigration from that quarter.

Mr. C. S. Wilson's letter to the Cape Colonist.

Mr. C. S. Wilson, in a letter to the Cape Colonist, mentioned that the Cape Colony is not at present in a position to encourage immigration from
the British Isles, and that the government is not prepared to make any arrangements for the introduction of immigration from that quarter.

Mr. C. S. Wilson's letter to the Cape Colonist.

Mr. C. S. Wilson, in a letter to the Cape Colonist, mentioned that the Cape Colony is not at present
in a position to encourage immigration from
the British Isles, and that the government is not prepared to make any arrangements for the introduction of immigration from that quarter.

Mr. C. S. Wilson's letter to the Cape Colonist.

Mr. C. S. Wilson, in a letter to the Cape Colonist, mentioned that the Cape Colony is not at present
in a position to encourage immigration from
the British Isles, and that the government is not prepared to make any arrangements for the introduction of immigration from that quarter.

Mr. C. S. Wilson's letter to the Cape Colonist.

Mr. C. S. Wilson, in a letter to the Cape Colonist, mentioned that the Cape Colony is not at present
in a position to encourage immigration from
the British Isles, and that the government is not prepared to make any arrangements for the introduction of immigration from that quarter.

Mr. C. S. Wilson's letter to the Cape Colonist.

Mr. C. S. Wilson, in a letter to the Cape Colonist, mentioned that the Cape Colony is not at present
in a position to encourage immigration from
the British Isles, and that the government is not prepared to make any arrangements for the introduction of immigration from that quarter.

Mr. C. S. Wilson's letter to the Cape Colonist.

Mr. C. S. Wilson, in a letter to the Cape Colonist, mentioned that the Cape Colony is not at present
in a position to encourage immigration from
the British Isles, and that the government is not prepared to make any arrangements for the introduction of immigration from that quarter.

Mr. C. S. Wilson's letter to the Cape Colonist.

Mr. C. S. Wilson, in a letter to the Cape Colonist, mentioned that the Cape Colony is not at present
in a position to encourage immigration from
the British Isles, and that the government is not prepared to make any arrangements for the introduction of immigration from that quarter.