

TOWN COUNCIL—ELECTION OF A MAYOR.

At the meeting of the Town Council yesterday the election of a Mayor took place. A long discussion preceded on the part of some of the Councillors, who maintained that as customary, the members of the old Board should have been present on the occasion.

SIR H. BARKLY.—His Excellency Sir Henry Barkly will proceed to Graham's Town on Monday.

ENTERTAINMENT IN THE CATHOLIC HALL.—On Tuesday evening, the 29th August, an entertainment will be given in the Catholic Hall, the proceeds to be devoted to charitable purposes.

ELECTION OF TOWN COUNCILLORS.—The annual election of Town Councillors took place on Monday at the Town Hall.

UPPERAGE.—A coloured man in the employ of Mr. Tee, was killed on Wednesday, by falling under a wagon near Sandfontein.

THEFTS OF STOCK.—A farmer informs us (Journal) that stealing is still carried on in the neighbourhood of the Fish River Randt.

FORTUNATE ESCAPE.—On Friday last as two ladies, accompanied by some children, were proceeding down the path leading from the top of the hill behind the hospital to the Grey reservoir,

THE PARLIAMENTARY CATS AND DONKEY.—The Journal has an amusing and characteristic article on the Governor's prorogation speech.

how to manage a Parliament. He has a way with him which suits the legislative mind.

KING WILLIAM'S TOWN.—The K W T Gazette, says, that in addition to W Fleming, Esq., the Hon. D H Kennelly and P W Scholtz have determined to resign their seats.

QUEEN'S TOWN.—Carpenters and masons, says the Q T Free Press, are scarce in this town just now and a few fresh hands would find work at good wages.

THE ARCHDEACON'S HAT.—While Archdeacon Merriman was holding evening service in the village church of Whittlesea on Sunday last, some sacrilegious wretch stole his hat!

MISCELLANEOUS.

A FATAL ISLAND.—It appeared that the small island of St Kilda, in the outer Hebrides, was overlooked in the late census-taking.

MEETING ON BOARD OF A BRITISH SHIP.—By the arrival of the steamer Colorado, from New York, particulars have come to hand of a meeting which occurred on board the barque Manitoba, on May 1, whilst the vessel was on a passage from Cardiff to New York.

EMBEZZLEMENT OF £4,000.—At the Manchester City Police Court July 6, William Dyson Taylor was brought up, charged with embezzling moneys amounting to about £4,000.

ARRIVAL OF THE "CITY OF RAGUSA."—On June 19, a feat was accomplished, which, as a successful act of daring, equals anything that hardihood ever prompted man to.

MURDER OF A BANK CASHIER AND ROBBERY.—The cashier of the Northern Bank at Newtownstewart, county Tyrone, Ireland, has been murdered and the bank robbed of its cash.
