

The last song

The musical score is written on a system of six staves. The top two staves are crossed out with a diagonal line. The middle two staves contain musical notation with various notes, rests, and accidentals. The bottom two staves also contain musical notation, with some notes and rests visible. The paper shows signs of age, including foxing and staining.

Four empty musical staves are located at the bottom of the page, arranged in two pairs. They are completely blank, with no notation or markings.
