

Operas; by Albert Coates.

"Pickwick" Libretto from "The Pickwick Papers"
by Charles Dickens.
"Gainsborough's Duchess."
Libretto by Reginald Grundy.

"The Boy David" " from the book by Sir James Barry.

"The Tablecloth"
or Libretto & Music by Albert Coates.

"Van Hunks & the Devil"

" The Duel" freely adapted from the book "The Bear" by Chekof.

Orchestral.

Symphony 3944

Suite Ancienne.

Sinfonia Concertante.

Adagio Doleroso.

Piano Concerto. in C Major

Cello Concerto.

Ballet

"Little Alfie"

Songs.

The 23rd., Psalm.

The Lord's Prayer.

Ave Maria (composed from the sound of the Church bells at Cerro Laveno.

Three Birthday Songs.

To an Isle in the Water, Poem by Yeats.

The Quangle Wangle's Hat, }
The New Vestments } from "The Nonsense Rhymes by
The Owl & the Pussycat } Edward Lear.

2 Christmas Songs.

"The Quangle Wangle's Hat" was written in Hollywood, it comes in a group of 3 Edward Lear "Nonsense rhymes"...it was written for the "young people's" Concerts....these songs are orchestrated.

The Opera "The Boy David", from which we are doing "How are the Mighty fallen".. is still being orchestrated. It is taken from James Barrie's immortal work, "How are the Mighty Fallen" belongs to the The last Act. "The Vicars"... David searches for Saul and Jonathan and finds them slain...hence his lamentation.

The Lord's Prayer". Bach's Prelude no. 22, has always been a universal favourite beginning with Richard Wagner, who always insisted that Liszt play this prelude to him, whenever Liszt came to "Wahnfried" (Wagner's home in Bayreuth).

" I have long wished to write "The Lord's Prayer" but was never able to fashion the music to express it's full divine message, but believe that Bach's music fulfills this desire". Albert Coates.

Gainsborough's Duchess" is dedicated to my wife. She sang it-the role of "The Duchess" at its first performance in Los-Angeles California.

Kitisch! Is the greatest Opera that has ever come from Russia and I cannot understand why it has not swept the world off its feet....

Albert Coates.

The Fair of Soreschinsk" Hivria's song is one of the most entertaining of the many entertaining songs of this brilliant Comic Opera. by Moussorgski.. who is best known as the composer of "Boris".