The "Chronicle" Cake.

No. 758.

We have had many pianists visit South Africa, and whilst all of them have given great pleasure as well as satisfaction not one of them has created so wonderful an Impression as that talented co-religionist of ours, who is delighting large audiences not merely with ordinary music, but also with Jewish folk music. In presenting this week's cake to

MR. HERSCHEL HENLERE,

the artist in question, we shall instruct our confectioners to inscribe the dainty

COMMUNAL OVERLAPPING.

We are continually being asked to lend our assistance to campaigns in aid of some communal institution or other and, a week or so ago in pleading for support to prevent the Doornfontein Talmud Torah from being closed down, we urged that it was the duty of the Doornfontein Hebrew Congregation to do what it could in the way of either advancing the whole or a portion of the money required or, better still, to take the Talmud Torah over lock, stock and barrel. No congregation to our mind, is complete without making some provision for the religious education of the rising generation and, as one of our younger communal workers aptly said, at what was
