

Capetown Notes.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

The list of successful candidates in the music examinations of the University of South Africa has just been published and includes the following Jewish entrants:—Licentiate Branch "a" Teachers (pianoforte) Miss Minnie Wilensky, Cape Town; Branch - B, Solo performers, Singing, Miss Bertha Satz, Cape Town, Pianoforte—Advanced Division, Pass:—Nathan Dubovsky, Paarl; E. J. Greenstein, Stellenbosch; Deborah Israelson, Oudtshoorn; Edith Klein, Beaconsfield. Pianoforte, Intermediate, Pass:—R. M. Barenblatt, Strand; Sadie Goldberg, Wynberg; Nettie Jacobson, Cape Town; Betty Kahn, Bredasdorp, Irene L. Kaplan, Cape Town; Lillian Meiowitz, Wynberg; Constance Myers, Cape Town; Katie Penkin, Cape Town; Marie C. Rabe, Cape Town; Freda Rogoff, Cape Town, Esme Sohn, Cape Town.

o o o

The recently formed Cape Jewish Guild is making steady progress and whilst the Membership Roll at present exceeds 300, many more applications are being received. Formed for the purpose of encouraging intellectual and artistic pursuits, to provide a centre for social intercourse, for the exchange of opinions and for mutual improvement, and to promote and maintain the best traditions of Judaism, the Guild plays an important part in the social life of the local community. Located in spacious premises in Corporation Street, the Guild is controlled by the following Officers and Committee to whom every credit is due for a splendid organisation:—Chairman, Mr. S. Weiner, Vice-Chairman, Mr. M. Rosé, Secretary, Miss R. Wortreich, Acting Treasurer, Mr. L. Frank, Committee:—Misses F. Lampart, J. Reynolds, E. Hirsh and Messrs. J. Cohen, Wittenberg, F. Sutton, E. Beck, Rev. A. P. Bender is the Hon. President.

The Headquarters of the Guild consist of a large General Room, Library and Writing Room, all of which are very well furnished free of cost to the Guild, thanks to the efforts of Mr. J. Cohen who is largely responsible for obtaining the gifts from local furniture dealers.

Several sections have been formed and classes have been arranged for Physical Culture, Swimming and Tennis, whilst there is also a Dramatic and Musical Section. The members are taking a very keen interest in these sections and great promise he held out for a successful series of functions.

o o o

His Excellency the Governor General and H.R.H. Princess Alice and Lady May Cambridge together with party, visited Ashby's Art Galleries and purchased several fine specimens of antique furniture for use in Government House, Cape Town.

o o o

The Zionist Hall, Hope Street, was well filled on Sunday evening when the Rev. M. Diamond, who recently arrived from New Zealand, delivered a lecture under the auspices of the Dorshei Zion Association. Mr. I. Schwartz the President, occupied the Chair.

o o o

In the course of a very interesting lecture Mr. Diamond attributed the marvellous survival of the Jew in face of the loss of his ancestral home to his loyalty to his faith and to a strongly developed national sentiment. While never losing his Jewish conscientiousness, the Jew had proved his patriotism for, and loyalty to the country of his adoption, and had shown himself a significant factor in the prevent your appreciation of the beauties of the scenery. A little "4711" on the handkerchief cleanses the pores of the skin and restores freshness to the complexion

Dust And Heat

ASK FOR "4711"

Blue and Gold Label.

No. 4711 Eau de Cologne

Trade enquiries only to the Sole South African Agent, MAX FRANK, P.O. Box 953, Cape Town, P.O. Box 4711, Johannesburg Showrooms:—32 Burg Street, Cape Town, and 158 Market Street, Johannesburg.

up-building of his adopted country

Concluding, Mr. Diamond said that South African Jewry had noble institutions and commended the excellent and progressive lines on which they were conducted.

Mr. Schwartz proposed a vote of thanks to Mr. Diamond, which was seconded by Mr. Rubik and unanimously adopted.

o o o

The Gardens Synagogue was well filled on Tuesday when Miss Dorothy Bernstein, niece of Mr. Julius Friedman of the Fountain Hotel, was married to Mr. Ellis Tapelstein of Claremont.

The marriage ceremony was conducted by the Rev. A. P. Bender, assisted by Cantor Kirsh. The bride who was charmingly gowned in a silver brocaded frock with a fringe of pearls and carried a shower bouquet, was attended by Miss Irene Harris and Miss Dolly Gutman as bridesmaids whilst Miss Emily Gutman was a very pretty flowergirl. Miss Dolly Gutman and Miss Emily Gutman wore pearl trimmed lemon frocks edged with gold tinsel and hats to match. Miss Harris wore a peach crepe georgette frock which was well set off by a black picture