

Stage Song & Show.

His Majesty's

After a successful season with "The Pelican", Miss Iris Hoey will, on Monday evening next, stage her last production at His Majesty's Theatre namely, "The Man from Toronto," which has been described as an amusing comedy with an unusual and cleverly developed plot. In the new play, Miss Hoey will be seen as the wilful widow, who poses as her own parlourmaid, and she should excel in this part for she is undoubtedly the possessor of the necessary qualifications for dealing with a part full of fun and difficulties. Miss Hoey will be supported by her usual capable company.

The Empire.

Heading the bill at the Empire this week is that famous English artiste Maidie Scott, who presents an entirely novel act "Eve's Progress". Miss Scott is possessed of personality and charm and shows that she is an entertainer of note. Another newcomer this week is Jay Whidden, a dancing violinist, who is a clever player and quite a good humorist. A comedy, yet excellent gymnastic act is provided by the Pall Malls. Coming to the turns which remained over from last week, Beryl Beresford continues to earn great applause and succeeds in keeping the house in roars of laughter, whilst Fred Russell presents an entirely new ventriloquistic act entitled, "Jazzmania". Also included in the programme are: Marie Lawton who sings delightfully, Keeley & Aldous "The Smart Set Couple," and J. J. Collins.

The Orpheum.

One of the most powerful screen dramas of modern times is "Prodigal Daughters" which was shown at the Orpheum during the earlier part of the week and in which Gloria Swanson was featured. The plot deals with the modern girl and her craze for amusement. The picture has been produced on a lavish scale and is well worth seeing. The vaudeville items are provided by Lily Lena "the Fashion Plate of the music hall," who sings a number of clever songs and The Mariajanos, who present a delightful dancing act.

The New Bijou.

Francis Hodgsons Barnett's novel, "A Lady of Quality" is well known to the majority of people and the screen version is even more enjoyable than the book. Added interest is lent to the picture by the manner in which it has been staged, great attention having been paid to the smallest detail. Also included in the programme is the ever popular African Mirror, a comedy picture and news budgets from overseas.

Latest Music.

Messrs. Keith Prowse & Co., Ltd.

Messrs Keith Prowse & Co., are to be congratulated upon their latest selection of light music, the majority of them are song foxtrots and are being featured by the leading European orchestras. The new numbers are all well worth a place in every dance music library and are as follows: "That's my Girl," "Lover's Lane," "She loves me," "Just like a beautiful story," "The Hoodoo Man," "Childhood memories," and "Patsy"

Messrs. B. Feldman & Co.

Messrs. B. Feldman & Co., once again have a varied selection of new numbers to suit all tastes and the majority of them will, no doubt, be heard here in South Africa in the very near future. Included in a very lengthy list are the following: "Let me be the first to kiss you good morning," "When they made you," "In Shadowland," "Yawning," "Whiter than Snow," "One Million times a day," "Something's wrong," "One kiss," "Wishin'," "God sent me you," "I do, the two words that make you mine," "Tell-tale eyes," "He's the kind of a man that you like" "In the land of Tummijolibad" "Because they all love you," "Heart broken Sal," "Please" "Moon of Waikik," "The Sea Hawk," "Down in Pickaninny Alley," "Broken-Hearted Blues," and "Down by the Old Wang Ho"
