Hebrew Order of David and Friendly Society Notes.

The first meeting of the newly formed Maritzburg Branch of the Hebrew Order of David was held on Saturday evening March 14th. The Rev. J. I. Levine presided and was supported by Bro. A. J. Lipinski, L.D.S., hon. secretary of the F. C. Hollander Lodge, Durban. The first business before the meeting was to consider an appropriate name for the Lodge and it was unanimously decided to ask the Grand Lodge to sanction it being named the Sir Mathew Nathan Lodge. The meeting then proceeded to elect officers for the ensuing six months and the following were declared elected: President, Rev. J. I. Levine, Vice-president, M. Maister, Hon. Secretary, A. Goldberg, Hon. Treasurer, H. L. Blumenfeld, Master of Ceremonies A. Isaacs, Inner Guardian B. Bantzer, Trustees and Committeemen, A. B. Blumenfeld, A. Sher, M. Kamenitz, Book Examiners, J. L. Maister, and A. Blumenfeld. Medical Officers, Dr. H. Allanson, Dental Surgeon, Percy Rosen, L.D.S., R.C.S.

It was decided that the Lodge should commence its half year on April 1st, 1925. Various other matters were then discussed and it was decided to refer them to the committee for attention. The Rev. J. I. Levine then moved a hearty vote of thanks to Bro. A. J. Lipinski who had travelled specially from Durban to assist them in starting a Lodge on the right lines and the meeting terminated with a vote of thanks to the Chair.

The "At Home" organised by the Building Fund Committee of the Dr. Herzl Lodge of the Hebrew Order of David for Wednesday evening last was a complete success and, Bro. Michael H. Kam is to be congratulated upon his efficient organisation. The Selborne Hall was well filled with members, their families and friends and all declared that it was one of the most successful evenings ever held. The first portion of the evening's entertainment consisted of a concert in which the following participated: Miss Eileen Seeligsohn, Master David Taylor (pupil of Mr. Max Weinbrenn), Miss Blanche Beiles, Miss T. Tweinfeldt and Rev. A. M. Kaplan and the accompanists were Prof. Cav. L. Margottini, Miss Annie Taylor and Miss Betty Chosack, whilst after an interval during which refreshments were served, dancing was indulged in until midnight to the music provided by Harry Smith's orchestra.

The Dr. Max Nordau Lodge of the Hebrew Order of David, Brakpan, is holding a Grand Ball in the Brakpan Mines Recreation Hall on Wednesday April 1st, 1925. Special arrangements are being made by various Lodges to attend in large parties and amongst them the Dr. Herzl Lodge is arranging to charter buses for the conveyance of members. All members of the Dr. Herzl Lodge who intend to be present are requested to communicate with the Secretary, Telephone 5330 Central.

The Yiddish Literary Society.

The great success of the gramophone recital organised by the Yiddish Literary Society has resulted in the committee receiving numerous requests to arrange a further evening and this will take place on Sunday evening next the 29th inst. We would advise all those who intend to be present to make a point of being there as early as possible as there is bound to be a large attendance.
