"THE CLIMAX."

Guy Bates Post, who has been delighting Cape Town theatre-lovers with his brilliant work in "The Masquerader," has selected "The Climax" for his second production at the Opera House. Unlike other plays written round the subject of music and musicians, "The Climax" deals with music actually, and does not make it merely the subject of conversation. The youthful composer, Pietro Golfanti (Dennis Cardan) plays several of his own compositions during the course of the three acts; the singing pupil Adelina (Miss Dorothy Brunton) fills the air with music whenever the mood seizes her; and the old maestro himself, Luigi Golfanti (Guy Bates Post) also gives convincing proof of his musicianly qualities during the play. "The Climax" is a comedy-drama serious enough in purpose to rivet attention; amusing enough to arouse spontaneous laughter; and wholesome enough to be a joy to everyone who loves beauty, charm and fragrance.

"The Climax" has aroused the unstinted admiration and praise of all the critics in every South African city in which it has been presented so far, and is "a faultlessly constructed play, faultlessly played." It will have its premiere at the Opera House next Thursday night.

THE TIVOLI.

This week as a star turn this popular place of amusement is presenting Mdlle. Terpischore who will render amongst other dances the "Tempest," an "Oriental Dance" and the "Danse Bacchanale." This lady who has had a considerable experience having been a danseuse since she was five years of age, arrives in this country with a great European reputation and will doubtless add to her laurels by her renditions in South Africa. From last week's bill there will remain over Story and Lee, the American comedy artistes and Benson Gray, the very clever ventriloquist. In addition there will be a film entitled "Black Cyclone," which stars Rex, the wild horse.

ALHAMBRA.

A thrilling colourful romance, "A Thief in Paradise" will be shown at the Alhambra, Monday next. There are no dull moments in "A Thief in Paradise." It is full of action from the opening title to the final fade-out. It is the story of a man, who masquerades as another man, falls in love with one girl and is loved by another—an unscrupulous Eurasian girl who is his accomplice in the impersonation.

One of the unique features of the picture is a polo game played by girls clad in bathing suits. The game marks the beginning of a thrilling chase and a rescue that equals in thrills the exciting climax of an old-fashioned serials.

But "A Thief in Paradise" is more than a thriller. It has romance and drama of the most intense kind. There is a love story of a man who knows he has no right to claim the girl he loves, and who fights out his supreme battle with himself.
