AMUSEMENTS.

THE ALHAMBRA.

"Tempest" is a highly climatic drama, set against the background of revolutionary Russia. It reveals love's great conflict in the hearts of a red-blooded peasant and a blueblooded princess. Comedy also plays an important part in this film. The cast is superior. John Barrymore plays the lead. His performance matches any of his great portrayals given on the stage. Not only is "Tempest" considered his greatest picture, but his greatest screen performance. Camilla Horn is a new face to film goers, and is regarded as something of a sensation. She is different from any other actress on the screen—in type distinctive. Louis Wolheim needs no introduction to those who say "Sorrell and Son." In "Tempest" he plays an excellent comedy part.

Ivan Markov was an aspiring but obscure sergeant in the army of the Russian Czar. The Princess Tamara was of the aristocracy-beautiful, sensitive, imperious. These two had an electrifying love affair. For his presumption the soldier was bitterly punished. The revolution placed the soldier behind the judgment table. The princess, now humbled, stood before it. Was he to condemn-or to forgive?

GRAND THEATRE.

Commencing Monday, H. B. Warm and Lois Wilson and Clive Brook will be seen in "Lessons for Wives." The story deals with a wife who went to Paris for a divorce and comes back with a husband, a very interesting and amusing comedy, and will appeal to all. As this film cannot be shown at matinees, a comedy programme has been arranged for matinee performances only, featuring Charlie Chaplin, Harold Lloyd, Buster Keaton and Larry Semon and Our Gang. On Thursday, the great mystery drama that startled the whole world, "The Cat and the Canary," will be screened, presented by a cast second to none—Laura La Plante, Flora Finch, Tully Marshall, Arthur Edward Carew. It is the most thrilling film every screened. Nightmares in a world unknown, terrors of a haunted house. You'll gasp, tremble and laugh at this super

THE TIVOLI.

There is a topping bill at the Tivoli this week. At the head is Sandy Powell, a newcomer with a great overseas reputation. His is a refreshing kind of turn, and his whimsical humour very infectious. The Lee Sisters are favourites here and their songs, old and new, appeal to their audiences. Edith and Joyce harmonise effectively, while Worth and Towers are competent dancers. An attractive dancing and acrobatic act is that presented by Arthur James and Partner, and Jules Cheroy and Partner repeat their clever balancing act. Mantell's Mannikins find an appreciative reception for their contribution to a compact vaudeville programme.

COMMUNAL NOTES.

BENONI.

Readers of this column will no doubt remember that reference has often been made to the activities of the newly-formed Maccabean Society in Benoni. Many interesting functions, including drill-meetings and lectures, have been held, and reported here; the most successful function to date, however, was the dance held at the Hebrew Hall on Saturday evening, 3rd August.

The members of the local Maccabean Society turned out in full force for this highly enjoyable social affair, while members of other Maccabean Societies, too, attended this, the first dance of the newest branch of the Movement. The dance was a success, both socially and financially, and the committee is to be congratulated for catering so well to the requirements of all those present. The excellent music was provided by Angus Watts' Orchestra.

CULTURAL SOCIETY.

The junior circle of the Benoni Jewish Cultural Society has once more resumed its activities, after a break of some weeks caused by the school holidays.

On Saturday evening, 3rd August, a well-attended meeting was held at the Zionist Library. The meeting consisted of a lecture by Mr. I. Fanaroff, B.A. Mr. Fanaroff chose as his subject "The Melting-Pot Stage in our Spiritual Develop-ment," and explained that the "melting-pot" stage was the stage which marked the transition from childhood to adolescence. At this period, one began to question matters which, up to then, had been taken for granted. Among those problems which one began to consider seriously at this important period of life, the speaker mentioned religion, anti-Semitism (that is, the reasons why the latter was always present), politics and Zionism. Mr. Fanaroff stated that it was absolutely essential for a person deeming himself educated to appreciate someone else's point of view, while, of course, that person made up his own mind as to what he himself thought was the right view to take; however, continued the lecturer, before making up one's mind, one had to consider every aspect of the question before finally deciding. The lecturer concluded with an exhortation to those present to read as widely and as deeply as they were able.

The subsequent discussion was most stimulating, religion being the problem that was argued over the most. In the words of Mr. Fanaroff's summing up, the interesting discussion proved that those present that evening were already deeply immersed in the 'melting-pot" stage!

A hearty vote of thanks to the lecturer concluded the meeting.

BOKSBURG.

Owing to pressure of space, we were unable last week to report the mass meeting held in Boksburg to commemorate the 25th anniversary of Dr. Herz'l yahr zeit.

The meeting, which was a representative gathering of Boksburg Jewry, took place at the local synagogue. Mr. Ch. Hoppenstein, who presided, told of the work which had been accomplished by the Zion ist Organisation during the last 25

In an eloquent address, Advocate J. Gering gave a clear and interest ing account of the life and work of Herzl. He told how Herzl had answered the call of his suffering brethren. With many quotations from the works of Herzl, the speaker showed how the great leader the born leader—had set about improv ing the condition of his unfortunate fellow-Jews.

A vote of thanks to the speakers and the lusty singing of Hatikvah concluded the meeting.
