

Social and Personal

Mr. Laszlo Schwartz, the eminent Hungarian composer-violinist, and Miss Dawn Assheton, the gifted singer, are leaving for Durban, where they will shortly give joint musical recitals. From there they will proceed to Lourenco Marques and Rhodesia, returning to Johannesburg about the middle of August, when they will open their season here with a salon musicale in the Carlton Hotel ballroom.

The marriage of Olga, daughter of Mr. and the late Mrs. I. Slobedman, and Bocky Cohen, of Cohen and Sons, (Johannesburg), Ltd., son of the late Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Cohen, of Germiston, was solemnised at the Cradock Synagogue on Sunday last.

The engagement is announced of Sarah Rebecca, only daughter of Mrs. and the late Mr. Max Berkowitz, to Morris, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Edelman, both of Johannesburg.

The engagement is announced of Miss Lily Friedland, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. Friedland, of Johannesburg, to Mr. Nathan Marcus Sloom, second son of the late Mr. and Mrs. A. Sloom.

Congratulations are being extended to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Miller (nee Rachel Morrison) of 17 Upper Orange Street, Capetown, on the occasion of their Silver Wedding, having been married at Capetown on the 18th June, 1905, by the Rev. L. Schrire.

The marriage will take place at the Wolmarans Street Synagogue at 2.30 p.m. on Sunday, the 22nd inst., of Minnie, daughter of Mrs. and the late Mr. Glickman, 14, Mitchell Street, Berea, Johannesburg, to Lazer, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Leader of Worcester.

Miss B. Lowenstein, the second Pretoria girl to be admitted to the Side Bar, will shortly leave Pretoria for Springs, where she will practice as a solicitor in partnership with Mr. M. Burman.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Bloch, Yeoville, wish to announce the engagement of their second daughter, Sophie, to Sam Koven, of Johannesburg, formerly of Rhodesia, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Koven, Bertrams.

MISS T. PENCHARZ.

Miss Tilly Pencharz, whose engagement to Mr. Lew Lazarus was announced last week, is a valued member of the Zionist Record staff. She has been associated with the journal since its inauguration as a fortnightly and then as a weekly newspaper and has always shown the deepest loyalty in her work. The heartiest congratulations have been extended to Miss Pencharz by the members of the staff of the journal and also by the staff of the S.A. Zionist Federation.

LUNCHEON TO VICTOR CHENKIN.

Guest of the Jewish Guild.

On Tuesday last the guest of honour at the Jewish Guild luncheon was Mr. Victor Chenkin, the noted actor-singer. There was a large number of diners present at the function, over which Dr. Morris Cohen, Chairman of the Jewish Guild, presided. In response to the welcome extended him, Mr. Chenkin said that he could not reply properly to them in an address, but would reply in song. He thereupon sang two typical folk songs in a masterly manner, accompanied by Maestro Mais Zlatin. After the luncheon, the diners were introduced to the guest of honour by Mrs. Selina Hirsch, the Secretary of the Jewish Guild.

The All-British "GEISHA"

PORTABLE GRAMOPHONE.

NOTE ITS POINTS.—Size 8½ x 13 x 15½. Carries 12-in. Records in lid. Special Metal Amplifier; latest Needlecup; Geisha Sound Box; Garrard Motor; 12-in. Turntable; plays 12-in. records with lid closed. Retail Selling Price £5 17s. 6d. AGENTS WANTED.

Sole S. African Distributors:
B. M. COTTON & CO., LTD.,
Wholesale Jewellers,
Merchants, Shippers,
P.O. Box 155 Port Elizabeth.

HURWITZ—JACOBS.

The marriage took place at Kroonstad of Miss Ada Jacobs, second daughter of Mrs. Jacobs, and the late Mr. S. Jacobs, to Dr. Charles Hurwitz, radiologist and house surgeon at the Kroonstad Hospital, and the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Hurwitz, of Johannesburg. The Synagogue was decorated with ferns and flowers.

The bridesmaids were the Misses Bella Jacobs and Ann Hurwitz. The unterfuhrers were Mr. and Mrs. R. Jacobs and Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Hurwitz, all of Johannesburg. After the ceremony, a supper and dance was held at the Town Hall.

LOSKY—BLOOM.

The marriage of Miss Lily Bloom to Mr. Harry Losky, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. I. Losky, was solemnised on Sunday last at Welgelegen, Primrose Terrace, Berea. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. Woolf, and the unterfuhrers were Mr. and Mrs. Elias Raphael and Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Cowen. The canopy bearers were Messrs. Julius Bloom, Abe Roup (Paarl), Harry Schlyer and Theo. Levy. Mr. Maurice Losky, brother of the bridegroom, was the best man. After the ceremony a reception was held, at which 500 people were present. The Rev. W. Woolf proposed the health of the bride and bridegroom.

Among the presents received was a silver cigar box from the committee of the Jewish Guild, a silver coffee percolator from the pupils of the Commercial High School, a decanter and glass from the pupils of the Parktown Convent, and an inkstand from the Triangle Tennis Club.

MULLER—FOX.

On Sunday evening, at the Wolmarans Street Synagogue, the wedding was solemnised of Miss Hetty Muller, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Muller, and Mr. Simon Joshua Fox, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Fox.

The ceremony was performed by Dr. J. L. Landau (Chief Rabbi). The unterfuhrers were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Muller and Mr. and Mrs. Max Fox. The canopy bearers were Messrs. Harry Muller, George Solarsh, Nick Crane and Walter Phillips. Mr. Percy Crane, who was the best man, was assisted by Mr. Leo Muller, brother of the bride.

Miss Madge Solarsh was the maid of honour and the Misses Toby Solarsh and Mildred Kahn the bridesmaids. After the ceremony a reception was held in the Selborne Hall, which was attended by the staff of Messrs. N. Werksentations had also been made by the staff of Messrs. N. Werksentations and another from the Chevra Mishna Gemvra. Pregregation and another from the Chevra Kadisha and the Jewish College, the Jewish Aged Home, the staff of the man and Katzen, the Hope Convalescent Home, the staff of the Jewish College, the Jewish Aged Home, the Chevra Kadisha and the Ladies' Gymnasium (Wanderers).

The honeymoon is to be spent in a trip to England and the Continent.

Miss Elsie Salomon will give a lecture on humorous poetry at three o'clock on Monday afternoon, June 23, at Northwards, Victoria Avenue, the residence of Lady Albu, and she will be assisted by members of her studio who will present a playlet and give recitations.

STANDARD THEATRE:

Lessees: African Theatres, Ltd.

ALEX CHERNIAVSKY has the honour to present

Greatest International Song Interpreter of the Day

VICTOR CHENKIN

Including Russian, Italian, French, German, Gypsy, Caucasian and Jewish Chassidic Melodies.

June 21st, 24th, 26th, 28th.

At 8.15 p.m.