JOHANNESBURG MUSICAL SOCIETY.

The concert of the above society on Tuesday night introduced to a South African musical audience Mr. Erwin Broedrich, who proved himself to be a gifted violinist. The clear tone of his instrument and the fine technical ability of the player contributed to the enjoyment of a number of fine compositions.

Signor Lorenzo Danza was associated with the gifted violinist and played a number of piano soli with his usual brilliance.

"DIXIANA" AT THE ASTORIA.

Harry Tierney and Anne Caldwell, a combination responsible for many stage successes, wrote the music and lyrics especially for "Dixiana," the mammoth musical extravaganza which makes its bow to the South African public on Saturday, 15th inst., at the Astoria Kinema. In addition to Bebe Daniels, who proved herself an accomplished singer in "Rio Rita," Everett Marshall, who was prior to this picture a star in the New York Metropolitan Opera Company, also appears.

"Dixiana" is produced with unusually lavish settings, the technicolour carnival scenes which bring the film to a conclusion are really particularly beautiful in colour and staging. In fact, no more effective settings could have been chosen in the use of colour and music, for the atmosphere of gaiety and abandon is almost continental in appeal. "Dixiana" can indeed be regarded as an admirable super production and one which is sure to take South Africa by storm.
