SHEAR—ABRAHAMS.

A pretty wedding took place at the Wolmarans Street Synagogue on Thursday evening, the 16th inst., when Miss Annie Shear, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Shear, was married to Mr. Abe Abrahams, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. I. Abrahams. Dr. J. L. Landau (Chief Rabbi), assisted by Cantor Inspektor, officiated.

The unterfuhrers were the parents of the bride and bridegroom, and the duties of best man were carried out by Mr. Jack Shear (brother of the bride), assisted by Mr. R. Leibowitz. The canopy-bearers were Messrs. Marcel Ginsberg, Louis Lutrin (cousins of the bridegroom), R. Tragowsky and Labe, and the bridesmaids were the Misses Esther Lutrin (Durban), Esther Ginsberg, Mercia Ginsberg (cousins of the bridegroom), and Stella Schwartzberg, while little Stella Leibowitz acted as flower girl. Master Hilliard Hurwitz (nephew of the bridegroom) made an attractive page boy.

About five hundred guests attended the subsequent reception, which was held at the Selborne Hall.

HERMAN—MELAMED.

At the Wolmarans Street Synagogue last Thursday, the marriage took place of Cecilia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Herman, to Mr. Ezekiel Melamed, son of Mr. Isaac Melamed. Dr. J. L. Landau (Chief Rabbi) officiated.

The unterfuhrers were the parents of the bride and Mr. and Mrs. A. Joelson, and the canopy holders Messrs. L. Cohen, M. Melamed, H. Adelstein and J. Nathan. The bridal retinue consisted of the Misses Emily Herman, Molly Herman, Dora Cohen, Esther Edelstein, and Rose Melamed. A family dinner was subsequently held at the H.O.D. Hall.

Among the many wedding gifts were presentations from the Hebrew Order of David, the Braamfontein Hebrew congregation, the children and staff of the City and Suburban Junior School, the staffs of Messrs. J. J. van den Bergh, Melamed and Nathan, and the Felix Tennis Club.

CHERKASSKY'S FAREWELL.

Shura Cherkassky's farewell programme in the City Hall, Johannesburg, at 8.45 on Sunday night, will include five Chopin compositions, all familiar to local concert audiences, and three Liszt works — "Funerailles," "Venezia e Napoli," and "Au Bord d'une Source." The opening piece, the Bach-Busoni "Chaconne," will be followed by the Scarlatti-Tausig "Pastorale and Capriccio."

MADAME ESPINOSA HONOURED.

Under the auspices of the S.A. Dancing Teachers' Association, a cabaret in honour of Madame Espinosa was held at the City Hall, Johannesburg, on Monday evening, and attracted over 700 dancers.

The programme included old-fashioned numbers and waltzes by pupils of the dancing teachers and by the teachers themselves. An effective item was the ballroom dancing by twelve pupils and their partners. This aroused admiration from the large audience. The various items of ballet dancing demonstrated the high order in which this art is reaching in Johannesburg.
