

Carnival Activities for the National Fund

MOCK CONGRESS AT PRETORIA.

A very successful performance of the Mock Congress took place at the Jewish Memorial Hall, Beatrix Street, Pretoria, on Sunday evening. The members of the S.A. Zeire Zion, who came over from Johannesburg to take part in the "Congress," were given an enthusiastic reception by the audience which filled the hall. The arrangements in Pretoria were in the hands of the Young Israel Society ably assisted by the other Zionist bodies in the capital.

FUNCTION AT YEOVILLE.

Last Saturday evening a function was held at the residence of Mrs. J. Emdin, 108 Hunter Street, Yeville, which realised the fine sum of £32 10s. This affair was very well arranged and thoroughly enjoyed by all present.

GERMISTON.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Lifschitz will give an "At Home" at their residence, 14 Webber Road, Germiston, on Sunday evening, July 26, under the joint auspices of the lady members of the United Hebrew Institutions and the Women's Zionist League, as arranged between Mesdames B. Cohen, A. Zion and E. Kramer, of the United Hebrew Institutions, and Mesdames Hareven, Benjamin and Margolius, of the Women's Zionist League. Invitations under the joint signatures of Mrs. S. Benjamin and Miss R. Joffe have already been sent out. For non-card-players there will be literary readings and an enjoyable evening is assured.

JEWISH GUILD PERFORMANCE.

Our readers are again reminded of the thrilling play, "A Murder Has Been Arranged," which will be staged by the dramatic section of the Jewish Guild on Wednesday next, the 29th inst., at 8 p.m. sharp. Patrons are requested to be punctual as the action of the play commences immediately the curtain rises. This play is of gripping interest throughout and was staged with great success at the St. James' Theatre in London. Tickets are selling well. These may be had either from the Carnival office or from the Jewish Guild.

UTILITY BAZAAR.

The big utility bazaar, arranged under the auspices of the Yeville branch of the Women's Zionist League, to be held on Wednesday, August 5, will be officially opened by Mr. Woolf Hillman, the well-known communal worker and benefactor of Johannesburg, at 11 a.m. Besides the various entertainments throughout the day, dainty teas and luncheons will be served. The numerous stalls will contain utility objects and ladies are requested to come and purchase their everyday necessities at wholesale prices and thereby support the National Fund.

CABARET AT LANGHAM HOTEL.

A function which promises to be of particular enjoyment is the Grand Cabaret which is arranged to take place at the Langham Hotel, on Wednesday, August 26. The popular orchestra, Jazz Maniacs Personal Nine, will be in attendance. Double tickets are 30s. and can be obtained from Mesdames L. Bernberg of 21 Observatory Avenue, and N. Rosenberg, of 4 Gill Street, Observatory, as also from the Carnival Office, 19 Jeppe Arcade.

FASHION PLAY.

Under the auspices of the Parkview-Westcliffe branch, an original Fashion Play will be presented at the Langham Hotel on Wednesday, September 2, at 3.15 p.m. The production is in the capable hands of Mrs. L. D. Phillips, the play being written by Mr. L. D. Wall. An orchestra will be in attendance and other musical items will be rendered. Tea will be served and ladies will have the opportunity of seeing advanced spring fashions. Tickets are at the low price of 2s. 6d.

DOORNFONTEIN BRANCH.

The activities this week-end include the Big Dance which will be held on Saturday evening, the 25th inst., at the H.O.D. Hall, under the auspices of the Doornfontein branch. Dance-lovers are assured of an enjoyable evening. Tickets are at the low price of 7s. 6d. double and 5s. single, which can also be obtained at the door. Refreshments are included. Dancing will begin at 8.30 to the strains of Gaby Peimer's Orchestra.

The Doornfontein branch of the Women's Zionist League has been considerably strengthened by Mrs. G. Sackstein of 43 Hendon Street, Yeville, joining the committee.
